Bukit Panjangâ??s 4km town run on 31 January 2027 stops selling places on 6 December 2026, or sooner if its 600 tickets go first, and it is one of three cheap January community runs now open on OnePA. The other two are a free 6km and 10km New Year Run from Woodlands Galaxy CC on 3 January, and a S$5 or S$10 2.4km challenge on a Sengkang running track on 17 January.

All three are run by grassroots Community Sports Networks and CCs and sold on the Peopleâ??s Associationâ??s OnePA portal. If Decemberâ??s big race weekends are not your thing, these are a low-cost way to start the year on your feet.

New Year Run, Woodlands: free, 3 January

The Community Sports Networkâ??s New Year Run starts and finishes at Woodlands Galaxy CC, 31 Woodlands Avenue 6, on Sunday 3 January 2027. Pick 6km or 10km. Runners report to the multi-purpose hall at 6.45am and the run sets off at 7.30am. The programme marks the end of the run at 8.45am, with refreshments and a goodie bag from 9am, while the eventâ??s overall hours are given as 6.45am to 9.30am.

Registration is free, with 99 of 200 places left as of 28 November, and sign-ups stay open until race morning. The nearest MRT station is Admiralty. The 75 minutes between the start and the listed end of the run work out at 7.5 minutes per kilometre over 10km, although no cut-off time is stated.

2.4km Challenge Run, Sengkang: S$5 or S$10, 17 January

Anyone who still measures fitness by the old school 2.4km test gets a proper rematch here. Sengkang North and Sengkang East Community Sports Networks run it on the track at 157 Rivervale Crescent on Sunday 17 January 2027, from 8am to 11am.

- Competitive run: S$10, with prizes for the winners. 50 places, with 18 left as of 28 November.
- Non-competitive run: S$5, run or jog at your own pace, pitched at families and casual runners. 50 places, with 29 left as of 28 November.

Every registered runner gets a goodie bag. Both categories are capped at 50, so do not count on walking in on the day.
