Japan Rail Fair at Guoco Tower

The seventh Japan Rail Fair runs from 15 to 17 October, 11am to 8pm, on the plaza in front of Japan Rail Cafe. Tanjong Pagar MRT Exit C is a minute's walk away, and entry is free.

The booths lean towards trip planning. San'in (Tottori and Shimane), Hirosaki in Aomori, Hakodate in Hokkaido, Sendai, Azumino in Nagano, Yamaguchi, the Izu Peninsula and Kanagawa with Yokohama all have stands, alongside Kintetsu Railway, Access Tohoku, Nippon Ski Resort Development and Tokyu's hotels between Yokohama and Izu.

Food and drink come from Isego Honten, which pours more than 20 sakes for tasting, the HINEMOS sake label, JR Fruits Park Sendai Arahama with Japanese pears, and Hokkaido dairy brand Yotsuba.

Stamps, stage shows and a cruise draw

This year's Eki Stamp Rally has 18 stamps, each designed for the fair, and a limited-edition passbook to hold them costs S$3. Rally entries go into a draw at 7pm each day. The first 100 entrants daily get a goodie bag and add a piece to a community puzzle wall marking SJ60, 60 years of Singapore-Japan ties.

The grand prize, drawn on 17 October, is a four-day, three-night Kobe and Kochi cruise for two on ASUKA III, worth S$10,450, sailing from Kobe on 19 March 2027.

The stage has a free JR East Train Simulator game demo at 1pm on 15 October and 2pm on 16 October. The mayor of Hakodate and the vice-mayor of Hirosaki present a two-city itinerary on 15 October, and NUS students lead a Bon Odori dance that evening at 6.30pm.
