Jason Zhang brings FUTURE LIVE â?? Leave For 1982 to Singapore Indoor Stadium on 27 June 2026. The Kallang lists the Saturday concert at 7.30pm, with doors opening at 6pm and ticket prices from S$158 to S$348.

The event page frames the show around looking back at the child who ran toward his dreams and continuing to chase a moving future. For fans, the practical decision is less poetic: choose a budget, sort the ticketing route and plan the Indoor Stadium night properly.

Key Details

The concert is promoted by Casa Entertainment Group, with Mandarin listed as the language and SISTIC as the ticketing route. The ticket purchase limit is 10, which matters for groups planning to sit together.

Because this is a one-night concert, fans should avoid waiting too long if seat location matters. If the group is price-sensitive, decide on a maximum category before checking availability.
