

Jewel Blooms With LEGO Botanicals: Canopy Park Visit Guide

Description

Jewel Blooms with LEGO Botanicals runs from 26 May to 26 July 2026, giving Jewel Changi Airport a June-holiday display that is part garden, part brick-built installation. Jewel says the showcase uses more than 800,000 bricks and is the largest LEGO Botanicals showcase in a mall.

The official page places the larger-than-life LEGO creations at Level 1 Forest Valley and Level 5 Canopy Park. That means visitors can view parts of the experience as a Jewel outing, while the stamp rally mechanic is tied to Canopy Park.

What To See

The core draw is the floral display: LEGO Botanicals interpreted as oversized blooms inside Jewel's indoor garden setting. For families, the more active piece is the Canopy Park mission card, where visitors locate stamp rally stations and complete the card for a special LEGO gift at the LEGO retail pop-up at B1 Jewel Atrium while stocks last.

Jewel also lists a spend-and-buy premium mechanic. Shoppers can purchase LEGO premiums at S$21, S$18 or S$15 with a minimum S$60 single receipt, and Mastercard payment allows one additional premium with the same qualifying receipt.

- Event period: 26 May to 26 July 2026.
- Locations: Level 1 Forest Valley and Level 5 Canopy Park.
- Main feature: over 800,000 bricks.
- Premium prices: S$21, S$18 or S$15 with S$60 single receipt.
- Redemption counter: opposite Level 1 Concierge, 11am to 10pm; last redemption 9.30pm.

How To Plan

If you only want photos, focus on Forest Valley and the main installations. If you are bringing children who like a task, budget time and ticket cost for Canopy Park so they can work through the stamp rally.

The page also notes a 27 June private-event closure affecting Jewel attractions except Changi Experience Studio from 10am to 3.30pm. Avoid that window if your plan depends on Canopy Park.

Visit Notes

The strongest strategy is to go outside the usual meal rush and to decide beforehand whether the trip is for free viewing, Canopy Park or shopping premiums. Trying to do all three during a peak weekend can turn a simple visit into a queue-heavy outing.
