Jiin Omakase is a counter-style Japanese restaurant at Shaw Centre.

Jiin Omakase is one of the Singapore topics to have on your radar this week. Jiin Omakase is a new Les Amis Group Japanese restaurant at Shaw Centre focused on premium seafood and omotenashi.

The Quick Read

A concise dining guide for readers deciding whether the new omakase opening fits a special meal.

- Venue: Shaw Centre, Singapore.
- The restaurant is a concept by the Les Amis Group Japanese Collective.
- Its positioning centres on premium seafood and omotenashi.
- The official site presents a chef-facing counter experience.
- This is a high-consideration dining choice, so reservations matter more than walk-in spontaneity.

Who Should Pay Attention

This is most useful for readers who need a clear, local decision: whether to book, visit, budget, apply, compare or set aside time before the window passes. The practical details matter more than the headline, especially when venues, age suitability, minimum spend, ticketing or dates affect the plan.

The restaurant focuses on premium seafood and seasonal Japanese dining.

Planning Notes

If you are heading down in a group, settle the transport route and timing first. For Suntec events, City Hall, Esplanade and Promenade are the usual MRT options. For Mandai, build in road travel time. For museum and dining visits, check admission, booking or reservation rules before leaving home.
