Keef The Beef Bungalow At Rochester: What Steak Fans Should Know

Description

default watermark

Keef The Beef Bungalow has moved into a colonial-style address at 2A Rochester Park, giving steak fans a new sit-down option near One-North and Rochester Commons.

The homegrown restaurant focuses on high-heat grilled beef, with USDA, Australian, New Zealand and Argentinian cuts, plus its signature PL steak inspired by Brooklyn-style butter-broiled steak.

What To Order Around

The official menu points diners toward premium steaks, grilled items, sides, salads and sauces rather than a sprawling cafe-style spread. This is a better fit for diners planning a proper steak meal than anyone looking for a quick casual bite.

Opening hours are listed as 11.30am to 10.30pm daily, with a 3pm to 5pm closure break.

Booking Notes

Rochester Park is easier with a booking, especially for dinner and celebrations. If you drive, the restaurant suggests parking at Rochester Commons or Citadines Connect Rochester Singapore before walking up to the bungalow.
