Kit Chan brought her 2026 Atrium Live Tour to Singapore Indoor Stadium on Saturday 19 September 2026, her first major solo concert here in nearly three years.

What the night was billed as

The tour theme takes “atrium” as the heart’s entry chamber: a quiet space for secrets and unspoken weight. Kallang’s event page said the setlist was curated by Chan across her three-decade catalogue, including favourites such as “æ-ø½”, “ç” and the National Day song Home, plus “è½±â’?” from Emerald Hill to The Little Nyonya Story.

Language was listed as Mandarin. Promoter was IMC Group Asia (Singapore) Pte. Ltd. The date followed her 30th anniversary concert and marked a return to a stadium-scale solo bill in Singapore.

Tickets and house rules

Categories on the official grid were CAT1 S$288, CAT2 S$248, CAT3 S$208, CAT4 S$168 and CAT5 S$128, excluding booking fees. SG Culture Pass presale ran 24 to 25 June; general sale opened 26 June on BookMyShow.

Entry was through Premier and Premier West on Level 1 and North and East on Level 2, subject to security checks. Children under three were not admitted; ages three and up needed a ticket. Outside food, professional cameras, unofficial light sticks and oversized banners were barred. Empty water bottles were allowed. The Indoor Stadium box office was listed from 3.30pm to 9pm on show day.

Kallang advised public transport to Stadium MRT and early arrival for the crowd load around The Kallang precinct.

After the Saturday bill

The Singapore date was the local stop on the Atrium Live Tour, not an open-ended residency. Resale tickets are not honoured at the door; Kallang points buyers to the official agent and the ScamShield helpline on 1799.

Kit Chan's Indoor Stadium date was Saturday 19 September 2026 at 8pm, with tickets from S$128 to S$288 before fees.
