Description

The Klook 11.11 sale Singapore travellers have been waiting for runs in stages this year, and the biggest drops land from 11 to 13 November 2026. Expect three days of sitewide codes worth up to S$110 off, a daily 50% off flash code for hotels, tours and transport, and card codes that Klook says can take the total to S$155 off.

The catch, as always: limited redemptions, fixed drop times and minimum spends. Here is the full timetable from Klookâ??s own terms, so you know exactly when to be on the app.

Klook 11.11 sale Singapore: the main event from 11 to 13 November

Two sets of codes drop on each of the three days. Every code is valid until 11.59pm that day or until fully redeemed, whichever comes first.

Sitewide codes, released at 12am on 11, 12 and 13 November:

- S$35 off with a minimum spend of S$400
- S$65 off with a minimum spend of S$700
- S$110 off with a minimum spend of S$1,100

Daily 50% off codes, released at 12pm, no minimum spend, each capped at S$30:

- 11 November: 50% off hotels
- 12 November: 50% off tours
- 13 November: 50% off transport

That S$30 cap means the 50% codes work best on smaller bookings. A S$60 hotel night or a S$60 airport transfer gets the full discount, while a S$400 resort stay still only saves you S$30. On 11 November at 12am, Klook will also release buy-one-get-one codes on three of the most wishlisted items, with the products still listed as to be confirmed.

How the S$155 figure works

Klookâ??s campaign banner bills the flash sale as up to S$155 off. That lines up with the S$110 sitewide code plus the S$45 Maybank card code, which runs on the same three days.

The Maybank codes are MAYB26VOYAGE (11 November), MAYB26ROAMER (12 November) and MAYB26WANDER (13 November). Each gives S$45 off attractions, tours and experiences with a minimum spend of S$250. You must pay with a Singapore-issued personal Maybank card, and Apple Pay, Google Pay and Samsung Pay do not count, according to the Maybank promo terms.

Other card offers running around 11.11, as listed on Klookâ??s Singapore promo code page:

- OCBC Visa: S$25 off sitewide with a minimum spend of S$300, valid 1 to 11 November 2026
- Grab PayLater: S$15 off with a minimum spend of S$120, valid 10 to 13 November 2026

- DBS/POSB: 50% off with a minimum spend of S$100, capped at S$50, with codes refreshed every Saturday at 12pm in November

If you are booking a big Japan trip, park it until 11 November and check which card code applies at checkout before paying. Bank codes are first come, first served, so kiasu mode is justified here.

Southeast Asia gets S$35 off hotels (minimum S$350), S$20 off bookings (minimum S$200) and 10% off Johor Bahru bookings capped at S$10 on 7 November. Japan follows on 8 November with S$100 off hotels (minimum S$900) and S$30 off bookings (minimum S$300), and China takes 9 November with S$70 off hotels (minimum S$650) and S$30 off bookings (minimum S$300).

Fine print worth knowing

- The codes are for Singapore users with a Singapore phone number, booking on Klookâ??s website or app.
- Flights and Klook Gift Cards are excluded, as are listings from third-party platforms.
- Platform promotions cannot be stacked in one transaction unless stated, so split bookings if you want to use two campaign codes.
- Claiming a code does not hold a price or guarantee a checkout slot.
