Show times and entry

- Shows: 24 and 25 October, 7pm
- Box office: 5pm to 7.30pm
- Doors: 5.30pm, through the North, East and South entrances on Level 2

Children under six will not be admitted.

Every ticket is good for a single entry, with no re-entry once you leave. All entrances lead to the South Foyer photo spot, and entry is subject to a security check. The Kallang urges fans to take public transport and arrive early, as a high volume of visitors is expected.

Ticket prices

Tickets have been on sale through Ticketmaster since 10 September, at a limit of four per transaction:

- CAT1: S$408
- CAT2: S$388
- CAT3: S$348
- CAT4: S$308
- CAT5: S$268
- CAT6: S$188
- CAT7 (restricted view): S$308

Sunday was not on the original plan. Ticketmaster Singapore added the 25 October show on 9 September, and its sale opened on 10 September. The organiser advises buying only from authorised channels to ensure admission.

A booking fee of S$20 applies to tickets above S$300 and S$10 to the rest.

Bag rules and deposit

Bags must be smaller than 35 by 20 by 30cm. Fan boards are allowed up to A4 size. Professional cameras and vapes are not allowed in.

A bag deposit opens from 4.30pm at S$10 per item, payable by Visa, Mastercard or PayNow only.

Merchandise

The merchandise booth is at North Plaza, Level 1, the sheltered area near the MRT, from 10am to 7pm on both show days. It is for collection only, and exchanges apply only to damaged or defective items checked at the counter.

Fans who make their own support items can head to the Fan Swap Zone at Kallang Wave Mall, on The Lawn opposite Fun Toast, from 12pm to 7pm on both days. Swapping is the point: selling is not allowed.

The tour so far

The Deadman tour promotes KUN's self-titled album KUN. Singapore follows a stop in Macao and eight cities in Europe and North America.
