

Lady M IOI Central Boulevard And Marina Bay Link Mall: New Outlets By End-June 2026

Description

The Lady M IOI Central Boulevard and Marina Bay Link Mall outlets are confirmed for end-June 2026 – the New York patisserie’s CBD expansion completes what regulars have been bookmarking for weeks. After the Jewel Changi Airport reopening earlier in May, two more outlets land squarely in the office crowd’s daily orbit.

This is a serious lobang for anyone whose Marina Bay office or CBD desk used to be too far for a mille crepe run. By end-June you’ll have three Lady M outlets in Singapore – one at Jewel, two in the heart of the CBD.

What we know about the new Lady M outlets

- IOI Central Boulevard Towers – opening by end-June 2026. The newer Grade A office tower at Raffles Quay, perfect for CBD lunch crowds.
- Marina Bay Link Mall – opening by end-June 2026. Tucked beneath the Marina Bay financial district, with direct underpass connectivity.
- Jewel Changi Airport – already reopened as a 44-seat boutique store and cafe; back at the former site.

What's in the cake line-up

Lady M's calling card remains the Signature Mille Crepes – 20 paper-thin handmade crepes stacked with light pastry cream and torched on top. Expect the full New York range across the new outlets.

- Signature Mille Crepes – the icon, lightly torched.
- Green Tea Mille Crepes – for the matcha crowd.

- Strawberry Shortcake Mille Crepes â?? a perennial favourite.
- Checkers Cake â?? chocolate-vanilla checkerboard with bittersweet chocolate ganache.
- Coffee, tea and seasonal specials â?? depending on the outlet format.

Why the CBD expansion matters

Lady Mâ??s Singapore comeback at Jewel in May 2026 saw queues from day one. Adding IOI Central Boulevard and Marina Bay Link Mall solves the CBD demand without forcing office workers to make the airport trip.

IOI Central Boulevard sits at Raffles Quay with a constant lunch-and-coffee crowd from the surrounding finance towers. Marina Bay Link Mall pulls foot traffic from MBS, MBFC and the Downtown MRT line â?? easy to slot a slice into a lunch break.

How to plan your visit

- Best time to go: Off-peak â?? before 12pm or after 3pm â?? to avoid the office rush.
- Whole cakes: Pre-order ahead for celebrations; whole cakes typically need to be reserved.
- Gift options: Mini Mille Crepes work well as a takeaway gift for the kiasu boss.
- Dietary notes: Most cakes contain dairy and gluten; check with staff for any specific allergens.

Once IOI Central Boulevard and Marina Bay Link Mall confirm exact opening dates, we will refresh this guide with the unit numbers and operating hours. Keep this one bookmarked â?? the queues will start the moment they open the doors.
