

Lilytopia ends today at Flower Dome, alongside free entry for resident kids

Description

Gardens by the Bay's Lilytopia, its first Ancient Egypt-themed floral display, ends today, Sunday, 27 September 2026, in Flower Dome. It is also the last day of free Flower Dome admission for Singapore-resident children aged 12 and under.

Lilytopia opened on 21 August, and Flower Dome is open from 9am to 9pm for the final day. The display features more than 7,000 lilies across 46 species and varieties, with a 4.5m facade inspired by Abu Simbel and a pond that nods to Nile-fed gardens.

Free entry for resident kids ends too

The kids-enter-free offer covers Singapore residents only and excludes organised group visits. Accompanying adults pay the standard Flower Dome rate. Singapore-resident Flower Dome tickets are S$12 for adults and S$8 for seniors; children aged 3 to 12 normally pay S$8. Proof of residency may be requested at purchase or entry.

Fenbao giveaways still on today

Inside Flower Dome, the Mid-Autumn Fenbao lantern giveaway runs again today, Sunday 27 September, from 5pm to 7pm at the South American Garden, free while stocks last. A DIY lantern painting session sits earlier the same day, 1pm to 3pm, with the last session starting at 2.30pm, also free while stocks last. Fenbao Adventure Corner at the Baobabs stays open 9am to 9pm through today with no extra activity fee beyond Flower Dome admission.

Gardens by the Bay is at 18 Marina Gardens Drive. Bayfront MRT is the nearest station.
