

Lotteria Jurong Point Is Coming Soon: West-Side K-Burger Guide

Description

Lotteria Singapore is already listing Jurong Point on its locations page, putting the Korean burger chain on the west-side food radar after its Jewel Changi Airport debut. The Jurong Point entry is shown at 1 Jurong West Central 2, unit #01-47/48/87/88/89/90/91, Singapore 648886.

The page does not publish an opening date yet, so this is a watch-list guide rather than a fixed launch-day announcement. It is still useful for diners planning around Jurong Point because the listing shows that the brand is preparing a sizeable ground-floor footprint in the mall.

What The Official Listing Shows

Lotteriaâ??s current Singapore locations page lists Jewel Changi Airport at #B1-248 with daily hours from 10am to 10pm and last order at 9.30pm. The same page then lists Jurong Point with the full address and a coming-soon label.

For west-side diners, that means the practical detail to save now is the mall location. Jurong Point sits beside Boon Lay MRT and bus interchange, so the outlet should be convenient for Jurong West residents, students and commuters once the opening date is announced on Lotteria Singaporeâ??s locations page.

- Coming-soon outlet: Jurong Point, 1 Jurong West Central 2.
- Listed unit: #01-47/48/87/88/89/90/91.
- Current open outlet: Jewel Changi Airport #B1-248.
- Jewel reference hours: 10am to 10pm, with last order at 9.30pm.

The official Lotteria menu highlights Riaâ??s Bulgogi Double Burger among its Singapore launch items.

Menu Items To Expect

The Singapore site positions Lotteria as Koreaâ??s original K-burger experience. Its homepage highlights Riaâ??s Bulgogi Double Burger, Riaâ??s Bulgogi, Riaâ??s Shrimp Beef Burger, Hot Crispy Chicken Burger, Kimchi Bulgogi Burger, Mozzarella Burger and Tomato Basil.

The Jurong Point outlet should therefore be more than a single novelty burger stop. Families and groups can expect a burger-led menu with chicken, sides, dessert and beverages, making it a useful casual option if they are already at the mall for errands or weekend shopping.

Why It Matters For Jurong Point

Jurong Point already has a dense mix of fast-casual food options, but a Korean burger brand gives the mall a different quick-service lane. The biggest audience will likely be diners who want something faster than a sit-down Korean meal but more distinctive than a standard burger set.

Until Lotteria publishes the launch date, bookmark the official locations page and watch the brandâ??s Singapore channels. Once the opening date and any launch queue mechanics are released, those details will decide whether this is a quick weekday visit or a weekend crowd plan.
