

Maki KOLORCOASTER Singapore 2026: Mediacorp Concert Ticket Guide

Description

Filipino hitmaker Maki is bringing KOLORCOASTER to Singapore on 13 June 2026 at The Theatre at Mediacorp. Ticketmaster lists the show for 5pm, with the Singapore stop following his sold-out KOLORCOASTER: One More Ride concert at Araneta Coliseum.

For Singapore's OPM crowd, this is the useful part: the show is pitched as a full-spectrum live experience rather than a short showcase, with Dilaw, Saan? and Bughaw named among the fan favourites that shaped his current momentum.

Prices And Fan Benefits

Ticketmaster lists early-bird and general-sale pricing across VVIP, Platinum, Gold and Silver. General-sale prices are VVIP at SGD168, Platinum at SGD128, Gold at SGD108 and Silver at SGD88, before booking fees.

VVIP benefits include an exclusive soundcheck party, early access, group photo opportunity, hi-bye session and exclusive giveaways. Platinum includes soundcheck access and early access, making it the middle option for fans who want more than a seat but do not need every perk.

- Date and time: 13 June 2026, 5pm.
- Venue: The Theatre at Mediacorp.
- Ticket limit: 10 per transaction.
- Admission: no infants in arms or children below six.

Planning Notes

The Mediacorp venue makes this easier to plan than a downtown standing gig, but fans should still factor in transport after the show because one-north and Buona Vista can thin out later in the evening. If fan benefits matter, keep the relevant category and collection instructions separate from the general admission notes.

OPM fans coming in groups should settle category choice early because VVIP and Platinum include benefits that affect arrival timing. For casual listeners, the cheaper seated tiers may be enough if the priority is hearing Dilaw, Saan? and Bughaw live.
