Mama Shelter Singapore has added a caviar, chocolate fondue and Champagne afternoon tea at Mama Restaurant on Killiney Road, priced at S$119.60++ (S$29.90++ a head for four), the hotel announced this week.

Called Chocolate, Caviar & Champagne, or CCC: Mamaâ??s Afternoon Tea, it runs from Wednesday to Saturday, 2.30pm to 5.30pm, so the next sittings are from Wednesday (30 September). The full set price applies however many diners share it, and coffee or tea is included.

What comes in the set

The savoury half opens with Mamaâ??s Caviar Dip, a sour cream dip topped with tobiko, spring onion and caviar. It comes with black truffle potato chips for dipping, truffle bikini sandwiches and ham croquettes.

The sweet half is built around an individual milk chocolate fondue served with berries, alongside almond financiers and madeleines. A lemon meringue tartlet closes the set. There are no scones on the menu, which leans on dips, chips and fondue instead.

Champagne costs extra

Despite the name, Champagne is not part of the base price. A glass of Champagne or a cocktail can be added for S$9.90++ each, so a table of four with one glass apiece pays S$159.20++. Prices are subject to service charge and GST.

There is also a game attached. Guests who roll a four on Mamaâ??s dice get 50 per cent off the set, subject to terms and conditions, which would bring the set down to S$59.80++.

Where it is served
