

Mimmo Bakery Cafe Opens At Asia Square: Menu And Visit Guide

Description

Mimmo Bakery Cafe opened at Asia Square Tower 1 on 25 May 2026, giving the CBD a new bakery stop for filled croissants, egg tarts, pineapple buns and other cafe signatures. The brand describes itself as a Hong Kong premium bakery cafe concept led by Chef Domenico Giammarella.

The address matters for office workers: 8 Marina View, Asia Square Tower 1, #01-05. That places Mimmo close to the breakfast, lunch and late-afternoon snack crowd rather than a purely weekend cafe audience.

Opening Hours

Mimmo lists weekday hours from 8am to 7pm, with last order at 6.15pm. On Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays, the cafe runs from 10am to 6pm, with last order at 5.15pm.

Those hours make it useful for weekday breakfast and coffee before work, but less forgiving for late dinners. If you are going after office hours, arrive well before the last-order time.

What To Try

The early appeal is the mix of familiar Hong Kong bakery references and cafe-friendly pastries. Egg tarts and pineapple buns will be the obvious first picks for many diners, while the filled croissants are more likely to suit a grab-and-go breakfast or tea break.

Because the cafe sits in a CBD tower, it should be most convenient for quick office visits. Groups may want to avoid the sharpest lunch rush if they want time to browse the pastry display rather than buy whatever is left at the counter.

Planning Notes

Mimmo is a practical addition for Marina View workers who want something lighter than a full sit-down lunch. It also gives visitors heading to Asia Square a bakery option that is not buried inside a large mall route.
