

Mimmo Bakery Cafe: Hong Kong's Beloved Pastry Concept Opens at Asia Square

Description

Hong Kong's beloved Mimmo Bakery Cafe is crossing the South China Sea to set up its first permanent home in Singapore and its landing right in the heart of the CBD at Asia Square Tower 1.

Helmed by Le Cordon Bleu-trained Chef Domenico Giammarella, Mimmo is more than a bakery. The concept is shaped by the chef's personal philosophy a culinary journey rooted in seasonality, natural ingredients, and world-class technique that presents a contemporary dining experience inspired by craft and mindful eating.

From Hong Kong to Singapore

Mimmo first built its reputation as a Hong Kong pop-up concept, drawing queues for its pistachio bolo bao, egg tarts, and savoury caf  offerings. The Singapore outpost at #01-05, Asia Square Tower 1 marks its first permanent home a full caf  experience where the menu expands to include build-your-own pasta bowls and beverages alongside its signature pastries.

Chef Domenico's approach bridges science and artistry a precision-driven, ingredient-first philosophy that he has refined across stints in Montreal, Toronto, and beyond before arriving in Asia with a clear vision for what modern caf  dining should feel like.
