Why This Deal Is Worth It

A single full slab of Baby Back Ribs at Morganfield's typically costs around $40 on its own, so getting two full slabs plus sides for $40.90++ is genuinely excellent value. About Morganfield's Singapore

Morganfield's is a popular American-style restaurant chain that has been serving Singaporeans since 2012. Known for their signature hickory-smoked pork ribs, the brand has established itself as a go-to destination for casual American dining in Singapore. Their Suntec City outlet is one of the most popular locations, situated in the heart of the Marina Bay area and easily accessible via Esplanade or Promenade MRT stations.

The restaurant's baby back ribs are dry-rubbed with a proprietary blend of spices and slow-smoked over hickory wood for several hours, resulting in tender, fall-off-the-bone meat with a distinctive smoky flavour. Each full slab comes with a choice of two side dishes, including options such as coleslaw, corn on the cob, baked beans, mashed potatoes, and fries. The ribs are then glazed with the customer's choice of signature sauces – options include the classic Sticky Bones BBQ sauce, the tangy Garlic Herb Butter, or the spicy Devil's Kick.

Making the Most of the 1-for-1 Deal

At S$40.90++ for a single full slab, Morganfield's baby back ribs are already considered good value for the quality and portion size. With this 1-for-1 promotion, diners effectively pay just over S$20 per slab - making it an exceptional deal. This is particularly attractive for groups and families, as two full slabs provide generous portions for three to four people when paired with additional side dishes or appetisers.

To make the most of your visit, consider pairing the ribs with Morganfield's popular appetisers such as their Loaded Potato Skins or Buttermilk Fried Chicken Wings. Their beverage menu also features a solid selection of craft beers and cocktails that pair well with the smoky flavours of the ribs.

How to Get There
