It was also the perfect opportunity to test out the Honor 200 Proâ??s camera, so all the photos and videos you see here are unedited captures from the device. While the Harcourt feature is primarily designed for portraits, I found it worked beautifully for food photography as well.

The new al fresco seating area is a delightful addition, offering a cozy ambiance where diners can enjoy a view of the iconic St. Andrewâ??s Cathedralâ??if you snag the right seats, of course!

Ka-ENâ??s Izakaya menu boasts 18 items, and we sampled a few:

Tebasaki Karaage

The Tebasaki Karaage was literally â??Har Cheong Gaiâ?• which was delicious and addictive.

Ika Karaage

Crisp and tender, the squid rings were cooked to perfection, avoiding that dreaded rubbery texture.

Kawari Agedashi Tofu

Among the best Iâ??ve had at a Japanese restaurant, the tofuâ??s lightly crisp batter stayed delightfully crunchy throughout.

Maguro Tartare Roll

A hearty option thatâ??s sure to satisfy.

For reference, Iâ??ve included the menu here, which also features various ongoing promotions.
