

NITORI opens at Jurong Point on 15 October, with a lucky draw for S$50 spends on 17 October

Description

Japanese home furnishing chain NITORI opens its seventh Singapore store at Jurong Point on Thursday 15 October, with opening gifts from 15 to 18 October and a confirmed-win lucky draw on 17 October. The new outlet, at JP1 #02-29 on Level 2 of the mall, opens daily from 10am to 10pm.

Shoppers get a Shimaenaga sticker sheet and hand fan from 15 to 18 October. Photo: Jurong Point

What the Jurong West store carries

The store brings NITORI's home essentials to Jurong West, including its N-COOL cooling bedding range, ultra-lightweight tableware and new items. Its floor area is 140 tsubo, or 460 square metres.

Jurong Point sits at 1 Jurong West Central 2 and is linked directly to Boon Lay MRT station, a major transport hub in western Singapore. On opening day, NITORI's black cat mascot Kuroneko greets shoppers on Level 2 of the mall.

Jurong Point is linked directly to Boon Lay MRT station. Photo: NITORI Holdings

Opening offers from 15 to 18 October

From 15 to 18 October, shoppers who follow @nitorisingapore on Facebook, Instagram or TikTok get a free limited-edition sticker sheet and hand fan, both printed with NITORI's round white Shimaenaga bird. To claim any offer except the shopping bag, shoppers must also like and share the grand opening post.

- On 15 October, the first 100 customers who spend S$50 or more get a S$5 voucher.
- From 15 October: a free shopping bag with every in-store receipt of S$50 or more.

All of the gifts are while stocks last, and terms and conditions apply.

The lucky draw on 17 October

On Saturday 17 October, every single receipt of S$50 or more earns one Lucky Dip, and every dip wins a prize. Shoppers pick their own prize from small home items, including a cat-shaped bolster, a pillow, a quilted pillow pad, a neck cooling ring, zip bags and two soft-toy charms, one of them a black cat.

The S$50 spend has to be on one receipt, and prizes are while stocks last.

NITORI's seventh store in Singapore

Jurong Point is the 1,091st store in the NITORI group, which is based in Sapporo. NITORI's other six Singapore stores are at Bugis Junction, Westgate in Jurong East, Eastpoint Mall in Simei, Chinatown Point, Junction 8 in Bishan and Parkway Parade, and all of them open from 10am to 10pm daily. NITORI closed its Orchard store on 31 July 2025.

Date Created

12/10/2026

Author

nuraisyah

default watermark