

Not Another Pet Fair returns to Suntec Hall 404 this weekend, free entry

Description

Not Another Pet Fair runs at Suntec Convention Centre Hall 404 on Saturday 19 and Sunday 20 September 2026, from 11am to 7pm, with free entry on an RSVP pass.

The organiser's site, notanotherpetfair.sg, says each pass admits one family and their pet, with entry and re-entry on both days. Pets should stay on a leash or in a carrier.

What is on in Hall 404

A pet blessing by Thekchen Choling Singapore runs from 12pm to 1.30pm on both days. Owners can bring a living pet, or a photo or ash urn for a short dedication for a departed animal.

An adoption drive brings several animal welfare groups on site for meet-and-greets and responsible-adoption advice. The Pet Physician offers free head-to-tail physical checks, with limited slots.

Optional KOMOHAUS yoga and Pilates with pets sessions are ticketed at S$30 per person for 45 minutes (usual price listed as S$73), capped at 25 people per class. Those classes sit apart from the free hall pass.

How to get in

RSVP is through the Eventbrite link on the organiser and Suntec pages. Suntec Singapore's event listing matches the dates, Hall 404 venue and 11am to 7pm window. Hall 404 stays open until 7pm on both Saturday and Sunday.
