Presenter BASE Entertainment Asia brings a touring company of 60 for a large-scale classical staging set to Tchaikovskyâ??s score. The story is the familiar Christmas Eve one: young Clara receives a nutcracker doll, the tree grows sky-high, toy soldiers fight the Mouse King, and the Nutcracker Prince leads her through a snowstorm to the Kingdom of Sweets and the Sugar Plum Fairy.

Dates and show times

- Thursday 26 and Friday 27 November: 7.30pm
- Saturday 28 November: 2pm and 7.30pm
- Sunday 29 November: 1pm and 5.30pm

The running time is approximately 115 minutes, including a 20-minute interval. Doors open an hour before curtain, and latecomers wait outside until a suitable break in the performance. Bayfront MRT station on the Circle and Downtown lines is the nearest stop for Sands Theatre.

Age rules and the house

The Nutcracker carries a General rating. Children under three are not admitted, every patron needs a ticket, and children under 12 must sit with a parent or guardian. Age is based on date of birth, random ID checks may be made at entry, and anyone who cannot show the required identification can be refused entry without a refund.

Booster seats are available first come, first served, and families can bring their own. Photography, filming and recording are banned during the performance, and cameras with interchangeable or zoom lenses go to the cloakroom. Outside food and drink are not allowed in.

Wheelchair-accessible and companion seats are booked through the Marina Bay Sands box office on +65 6688 8826 or box_office@marinabaysands.com.
