Description

OCBCâ??s Disney and Star Wars light-up card campaign is not just a simple card-design swap. The official OCBC page sets out different routes depending on whether you are applying for a new account, already hold an OCBC Debit Card, already hold an OCBC 365 Credit Card, or are applying for a new OCBC 365 Credit Card.

The promotion runs from 4 May to 30 June 2026, or while stocks last. OCBC says the designs are available only for the OCBC Debit Card and OCBC 365 Credit Card, with caps, qualifying actions and product terms applying.

For New OCBC Debit Card Customers

If you do not yet have an OCBC Debit Card, OCBCâ??s campaign page points you to open an OCBC 360 Account or Statement Savings Account through the OCBC app. During the application journey, you select a preferred Winnie the Pooh or Star Wars light-up debit card design.

The key condition is salary crediting: OCBC states that you must credit salary of at least S$1,800 within the first two calendar months after account opening. The campaign page also lists card delivery timing, but applicants should still read the debit-card promotion terms before treating the design as guaranteed.

OCBC Debit Card customers can choose from the Winnie the Pooh design code WTP or the Star Wars Darth Vader design code SWVA, subject to eligibility and stock.

For Existing OCBC Debit Card Customers

Existing OCBC Debit Card customers need to register by SMS from their OCBC-registered mobile number. Use the format DCLU <space> Design Code <space> last 4 digits of debit card number. The campaign FAQ gives examples such as DCLU WTP 1234 and DCLU SWVA 7890.

After registration, you need at least S$1,000 in qualifying OCBC Debit Card spend within 30 days from SMS registration. Successful customers receive the card within the fulfilment timeline stated by OCBC. Each debit-card design is limited to 10,000 eligible customers.

For OCBC 365 Credit Card Customers

Existing OCBC 365 Credit Card principal cardholders register by SMS to 72377 using their OCBC-registered mobile number. The format shown on the OCBC campaign page is 365LU <space> last 4 digits of the OCBC 365 Credit Card number.

The spend requirement is also S$1,000 in qualifying spend within 30 days from SMS registration. Unlike the debit-card path, OCBC says successful OCBC 365 Credit Card customers receive an email to choose the light-up card design within three months after the qualifying spend period. Each credit-card design is also capped at 10,000 eligible customers.

The listed welcome items include S$180 cashback, a Star Wars Mandalorian duffel bag and Grogu luggage tag, a Delsey 68cm luggage, and annual fee waiver for the first two years.
