3. Within two weeks from account opening, watch for OCBC's email to the registered email address with the OCBC-dedicated Flying Cape redemption link.
4. Use the Flying Cape redemption page to book selected experience sessions during the redemption period stated in the email.

Spend, Caps And Exclusions

- The kit is supplied by Flying Cape and is for the individual eligible customer unless a session is expressly a parent-and-child session.
- Each eligible customer may redeem each listed specific experience once.
- Financial Literacy Camp redemption is also once per eligible customer and subject to availability.
- Financial Literacy Camps by Jopez Academy are limited and available on a first-come, first-served basis.
- Redemption depends on available session timings on the Flying Cape redemption page.
- Each listed experience, MIDAS Lite report and eligible camp can be redeemed only once per eligible customer.
- The promotion does not apply with other privileges or promotions unless OCBC states otherwise.
- OCBC may amend participating programmes and experiences or substitute gifts under the terms.
- OCBC may recover the gift value if a customer is later found ineligible.

When The Reward Arrives

- OCBC sends the Flying Cape redemption link by email within two weeks from the date of opening the OCBC MyOwn Account.
- Customers book selected experience sessions through the OCBC-dedicated Flying Cape redemption page.
- Session availability and redemption period are set out in the redemption email.
