Old Chang Kee brands the item as Salted Egg Taro Mochiâ??O (å?¸è??è??æ³¥é°»è?¯è§?). The artwork shows a flower-shaped puff stamped with the Chinese character for fortune, filled with taro paste, salted egg yolk and a stretchy mochi centre. A gold ribbon on the same artwork marks it as new with mochi for Mid-Autumn.

Where to buy

The puff is listed for all Old Chang Kee outlets from 1 September till 30 September 2026, or while stocks last. The chainâ??s site carries GrabFood and foodpanda delivery links. Individual outlet stock is not published online, so availability can vary by store before the 30 September cut-off.

Halal

Old Chang Kee has had all products, outlets and central kitchens certified Halal by Majlis Ugama Islam Singapura (MUIS) since 7 January 2005, and still uses the MUIS mark.

The same Mid-Autumn graphic carries Old Chang Keeâ??s 70th anniversary mark (since 1956). The chain has not published a daily production cap or a per-customer limit for the puff. Outlet directories and operating hours are on oldchangkee.com.
