If your December plan is more lepak than ticketed concert, PACX Nights Singapore might fit. It is a free-entry festival of food, music and Asian pop culture at Bayfront Event Space, Marina Bay, running nine nights from 23 to 31 December 2026. This is the first edition, presented by AUX Media.

PACX stands for Pan-Asian Connected Xperience. The pitch is simple: street food, a flea market, a carnival, live music and DJs, all in one waterfront spot just before New Year.

PACX Nights Singapore: dates, hours and entry

- Dates: 23 to 31 December 2026, nine nights
- Venue: Bayfront Event Space, 12A Bayfront Avenue, Marina Bay
- Hours: evenings from 6pm per the festival key art, with extended hours on 31 December and celebrations until 1am on 1 January 2027
- Entry: free general admission. Capacity is limited on New Yearâ??s Eve

The organiserâ??s schedule graphic shows a 5pm start and says details are subject to confirmation, so check the festivalâ??s channels before you head down. A few guest activities need their own tickets, and prices were not announced at the time of writing.

What is inside

The organiser lists four zones. Main Stage has nightly sets from local musicians, DJs and regional acts. Taste Town is the food area, with Singapore favourites, Asian-inspired street food, bubble tea and desserts, plus a halal-friendly selection, a food passport trail, a spicy challenge and a mukbang corner.

Resurrack Flea Market brings vintage retail, creator merchandise, runway showcases and styling activities from Singaporeâ??s vintage and thrift community. Carnival has rides, game stalls and prizes, run by Uncle Ringo. Tiger Beer is the official beer partner, with a Tiger Time Bar pouring regular Tiger and the new Tiger Remix lager in Peach Oolong and Yuzu Lime.

Which night to go

The schedule graphic gives each night a theme. These are the highlights as listed, and the line-up can still change:

- 23 December: Retro Rewind, a throwback dance night
- 24 December: Christmas Eve Under the Stars, live music
- 25 December: A Singapore Pop Christmas, with Yao and Regina Song
- 26 December: Seoul Searching, K-pop music and a dance session, plus a Luna of f(x) fan meeting
- 27 December: Good Vibes, live music
- 30 December: Open Format Night
- 31 December: History of EDM, with a New Yearâ??s Eve countdown and fireworks views

The 26 December night is the one to plan around if you grew up on K-pop. Lunaâ??s fan meeting needs a separate ticket, as do the two chef showcases.

Chef showcases and the music line-up

Chef Kim Ji-young, the Michelin-starred chef behind Balwoo Gongyang and Gyuban, appears on 29 December. Chef Kim Sung-woon, from Table for Four, appears on 31 December. Both are ticketed separately.

On the music side, the Main Stage names include DJs Jeremy Boon, DJ RAW and Andrew T, and singers Regina Song, lewloh and Gareth Fernandez. More celebrity appearances and programme details are due to be announced.

Getting there and planning your New Yearâ??s Eve

Bayfront Event Space sits next to The Shoppes at Marina Bay Sands, and Bayfront MRT is a short walk away. Come early on 31 December if you want a spot, because capacity is limited that night.

If you would rather watch the fireworks from elsewhere, we have a guide to the Marina Bay Singapore Countdown 2027, and the Kallang Countdown 2027 is another option. For kids and family outings
