

Pan Pacific Singapore staycation: 2 nights, breakfast and S$140 tours

Description

The Pan Pacific Singapore staycation package called Discover Singapore: Stay, Savour, Explore gives you two nights, daily breakfast for two and S$140 worth of sightseeing bus tickets. You can book it until 31 December 2026, and stays are valid until 31 March 2027. The hotel does not publish a room rate on the offer page, so the price only shows up once you enter your dates in its booking engine.

That long window is the real lobang here. There is no need to rush before the year-end crunch, and you can pick a quieter weekend in early 2027.

What the Pan Pacific Singapore staycation includes

The package is built around a Marina Bay stay at 7 Raffles Boulevard, Singapore 039595. Here is what the hotel lists:

- Two consecutive nights in an eligible room
- Daily buffet breakfast at Edge for two adults (extra adult and child breakfasts are charged)
- Complimentary one-day sightseeing bus tour tickets for two adults per stay, worth S$140
- 15% off Ã la carte spa treatments at St. Gregory
- A complimentary extra bed for children aged 12 and below, on selected room types
- Pool and gym access, high-speed Wi-Fi and parking at no extra charge

Pan Pacific DISCOVERY and GHA DISCOVERY members get an additional 15% savings. Membership terms follow the programmeâ??s own rules.

Rooms, dates and booking rules

Eligible categories are Deluxe, Deluxe Panoramic, Premier Marina Bay and Executive Marina Bay rooms, plus four two-bedroom types: Deluxe, Deluxe Panoramic, Premier Marina Bay and Pacific Club. The two-bedroom options may suit a family that wants one big room instead of two.

You must book at least three days before arrival, and the minimum stay is two consecutive nights. Blackout dates apply, but the page does not list them, so check with the hotel before you plan around a long weekend or school holidays. Rates are subject to availability.

Cancellation and the fine print

Free cancellation is available up to 7 days before arrival. Cancel inside that window and charges apply. Since the offer needs three daysâ?? notice to book, you have a small but useful window to lock in dates and still change your mind.

- The offer cannot be combined with any other offer or promotion.
- Prevailing taxes and service charges apply on top of the room rate.
- The complimentary extra bed is not available for the Deluxe Panoramic Room, Deluxe Two Bedrooms or Deluxe Panoramic Two Bedrooms. For other eligible rooms it depends on availability.
- Extra bed requests and other questions go to enquiry.ppsin@pphg.com.

A practical tip: price the same dates on the standard room-only rate before you commit. Add the S$140 tickets and two breakfasts to that figure, and you will see quickly whether the bundle saves you money.

For reservations you can call +65 6826 8111, or book direct on the hotelâ??s website to see the live rate.

Is the Pan Pacific Singapore staycation worth it?

Do the sums before you click. The S$140 in sightseeing tickets and two breakfasts at Edge are real value, but only if you will use them. If you plan to stay in and swim, the bus tour is wasted, and a plain room-only deal elsewhere could work out cheaper.

Location helps a lot. The hotel sits in the Marina Bay area, so the sightseeing loop, the waterfront and the year-end light-ups are all close. If you are staying over for the fireworks, see our guide to the Marina Bay Singapore Countdown 2027.

Still comparing hotels? Fairmont is running a different angle with its third night on us offer, which suits longer stays.
