

PokéCenter SINGAPORE Grand Reopening: New Look, New PokéCenter and Exclusive Merchandise This 1 July

Description

After months of anticipation, PokéCenter SINGAPORE is officially reopening its doors this Wednesday, 1 July 2026, at Jewel Changi Airport and the wait has been well worth it. Singapore's beloved PokéCenter flagship store has undergone its first full-scale renovation since opening in 2019, and the results are nothing short of spectacular.

The grand reopening follows our earlier coverage of the renovation announcement, which revealed that the Legendary PokéCenter Solgaleo would be taking over as the store's new symbol PokéCenter. Now, with the doors set to open, we finally have a full look at what's inside.

The newly revitalised Pok mon Center SINGAPORE. Image: Pok mon Singapore

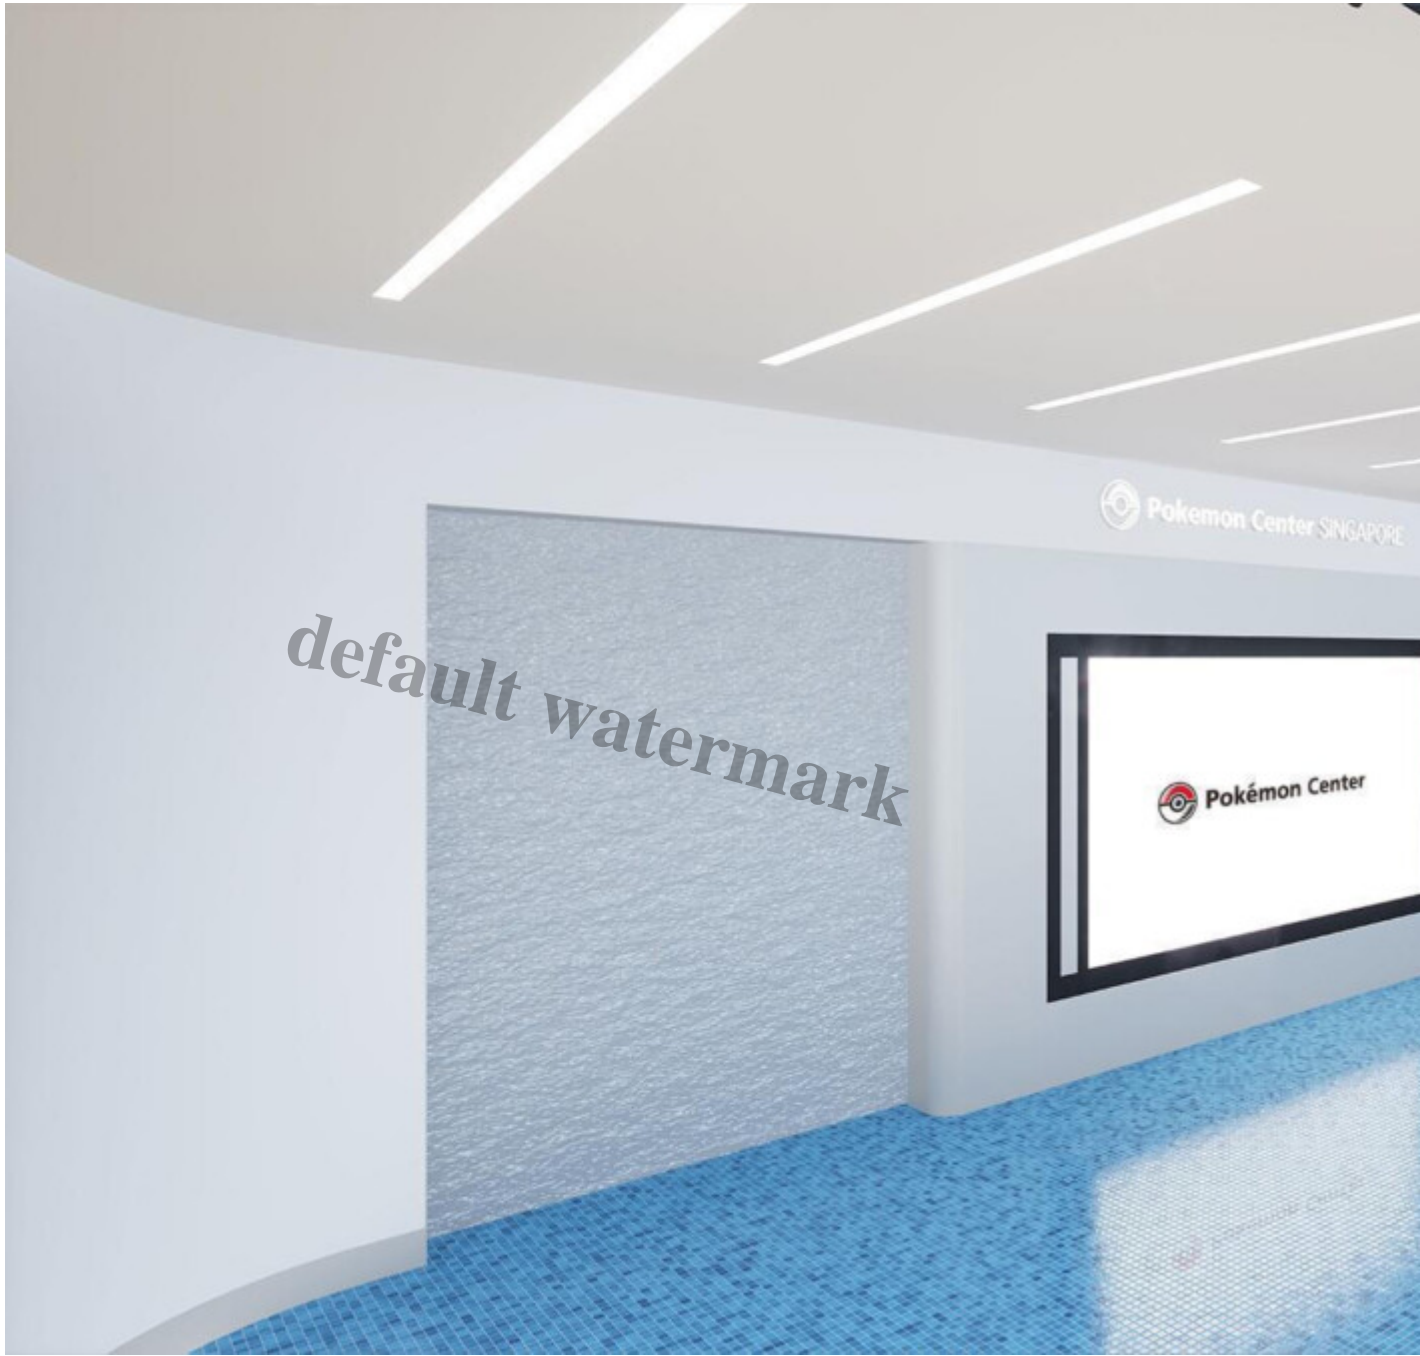

A Store Inspired by Singapore s Heritage

The revitalised Pok mon Center SINGAPORE draws deep inspiration from Singapore s unique culture and heritage. The interior features beautifully crafted shelves and design elements paying tribute to traditional local architecture   a thoughtful touch that makes this far more than just a retail store. It s a celebration of Singapore s identity through the lens of Pok mon.

The food court-inspired area inside the store. Image: Pok mon Singapore

One standout feature is a dedicated area inspired by Singapore’s beloved food court culture – a clever nod to one of the things that makes this city truly special. There’s also a spectacular ocean-themed event space featuring Vaporeon, the Water Type Pok mon.

The ocean-themed event space featuring Vaporeon. Image: Pokémon Singapore

Exclusive Commemorative Merchandise Across Two Waves

One of the most exciting parts of the reopening is the specially designed commemorative merchandise, crafted exclusively for Pokémon Center SINGAPORE. A total of 20 unique items are releasing in two waves, and the designs are genuinely lovely.

default watermark

The Kopi Cup & Saucer Set is an instant must-have. Image: Pokémon Singapore

Wave 2 Available from 7 August 2026

Mark your calendars for the second wave on 7 August 2026. This collection leans even harder into local everyday culture, with adorable Pikachu bag charms representing three iconic treats — a durian, a cup of kopi, and a slice of pandan cake (S$23 each). There are also Peranakan-inspired pouches, graphic T-shirts, and an embroidered tote bag featuring Pikachu and Solgaleo.

default watermark

Pikachu bag charms featuring a durian, kopi, and pandan cake â?? releasing 7 August.
Image: PokÃ©mon Singapore

How to Visit During Opening Week (1â??5 July 2026)

To manage crowds during the opening week, PokÃ©mon Center SINGAPORE is operating a ticketed admission system. Hereâ??s what you need to know:

- 10:00AM â?? 1:00PM: Store Visit Application (advance reservations â?? the application period has already closed)
- 1:00PM onwards: Same-day Queue Entry Tickets, distributed on-site from 8:30AM daily on a first-come, first-served basis while stocks last

If youâ??re planning to visit, get to Jewel Changi Airport early to queue for your same-day ticket. Do note that PokÃ©mon Singapore has asked visitors not to gather or wait around the store before the 8:30AM ticket distribution time.

default watermark

Solgaleo and Pikachu plushies â?? new arrivals for the reopening. Image: PokÃ©mon Singapore

Plan Your Visit

PokÃ©mon Center SINGAPORE is located at Jewel Changi Airport, the same mall where youâ??ll find Changi Rewards and CapitaStar double rewards. If youâ??re making a trip out, check whether youâ??re eligible for any Jewel tourist perks while youâ??re at it.

For the latest updates on ticketing, queue times, and merchandise availability, follow the official PokÃ©mon Center SINGAPORE Instagram page.

default watermark

default watermark

Pikachu with Durian plush â?? one for the durian fans. Image: PokÃ©mon Singapore

Date Created

30/06/2026

Author

claratan

default watermark