Sofitelâ??s official National Day offer is the primary source. It says the reservation is not confirmed until the requested payment details are completed, so submitting a form should not be treated as a secured table.

New for National Day: live music and a durian bar

Sofitel has confirmed two more reasons to linger over the National Day brunch. A live band session now joins the programme, and for the month of August a dedicated durian bar rounds off the spread.

Live music by Aggy Low and Jee Yon Lee

As you dine, be serenaded by the sweet voice of Aggy Low, accompanied by guitarist Jee Yon Lee. The pair work through National Day favourites old and new, including â??Homeâ?•, â??Where I Belongâ?• and â??The Road Aheadâ?•, alongside other popular English and Mandopop hits.

Durian Fiesta Bar (August only)

For the month of August only, the brunch turns up the decadence with a durian bar featuring six thorny-fruit desserts: Durian Pengat, Durian Choux Puff, Durian Kopi Tiramisu, Burnt Durian Cheesecake, Durian Ice Cream and freshly toasted Durian Kaya Toast.

What will two adults actually pay?

default watermark

The promotion means two eligible adults are charged one S$128++ base price. In Singapore restaurant notation, â??++â?• generally indicates a 10% service charge followed by GST. IRAS lists the current GST rate as 9%.

Calculation	Amount
Promotional base subtotal for two adults	S$128.00
After estimated 10% service charge	S$140.80
After 9% GST on that amount	About S$153.47
Estimated effective price per adult	About S$76.74

This is LBRDâ??s calculation, rounded to the nearest cent, assuming service charge is added first and GST applies to the resulting amount. It is not a quote from the restaurant. The booking confirmation and final bill control; ask whether any other charge or exclusion applies.

Who benefits most from the promotion?

Party	Likely best reading of the offer	What to confirm
Two adults	Clearest fit: one listed adult price under 1-for-1	Both guests are eligible and the slot is promotional inventory
One adult	No second adult to receive the free place	Whether the ordinary adult price applies
Three adults	One pair may qualify; third adult may be charged separately	How the restaurant groups an odd-numbered party
Four adults	Potentially two qualifying pairs	Whether there is a cap per reservation
Adults with children	Adult pair offer plus listed child charges	Child-age definition and whether children count toward seating limits

Party	Likely best reading of the offer	What to confirm
Senior diners	S$61++ senior rate may be lower than a full adult rate	Age proof and whether senior pricing can combine with 1-for-1

Do not assume the 1-for-1 offer stacks with Accor Plus, credit-card, membership or other dining discounts. The official National Day page presents a specific one-day promotion; it does not promise every discount can be layered onto it.

What is on the National Day menu?

The offer describes a Singapore-inspired spread alongside Racinesâ?? French and Asian buffet stations. Highlighted dishes include seafood and cold selections, local favourites, roasts and desserts. The exact rotation may change, so a named dish should be treated as a menu highlight rather than a guarantee that it will remain at one station for the entire service.

Official highlights include chilli crab-style and local seafood flavours, satay and hawker-inspired items, French roasts and pastries, and National Day desserts. The useful question is not how many marketing labels appear on the buffet, but whether the confirmed menu covers your groupâ??s dietary needs and preferred proteins.

Allergy and dietary checks

- Tell the restaurant about allergies when booking, not only after arriving.
- Ask which dishes share utensils, fryers or preparation surfaces.
- Confirm halal, vegetarian or gluten-related requirements directly; a buffet label alone may not answer cross-contact risk.
- Ask whether the menu can change without notice and what alternative will be available.
- For a severe allergy, decide whether a self-service buffet environment is suitable after speaking with the restaurant.

Sofitelâ??s page specifically asks diners with food allergies or intolerances to contact the team. LBRD cannot certify ingredients or kitchen controls.

Booking conditions that can change the decision

1. It is one day only: the National Day edition is on 8 August, not an every-Saturday 1-for-1.
2. The deposit is non-refundable: Sofitel states S$25 and requests completion within 48 hours.
3. A request is not confirmation: wait for the restaurantâ??s payment and booking confirmation.
4. ++ applies: compare estimated nett totals, not only base prices.
5. Menu rotation applies: do not book solely for one item without checking.
6. Promotion combinations are uncertain: get any stacking promise in writing.

How this differs from the regular Racines brunch

LBRD previously covered Racinesâ?? Ultimate Buffet Brunch: Straits Edition. That is useful for the wider brunch format, but the National Day page controls the special date, price and 1-for-1 condition. Readers should not copy an ordinary Saturday price or member discount into this one-day booking.

The restaurant has also run a separate Straits heritage menu. It serves a different reader intent and should not be mistaken for the buffet entitlement on 8 August.

A practical booking script

Before paying, ask: â??For two adults on 8 August at 12.30pm, does the 1-for-1 offer make the base subtotal S$128, what is the final estimated amount after service and GST, is the S$25 deposit deducted from the bill, and are any membership or card discounts excluded?â?• Add dietary questions and request the answer by email where possible.

Worked totals for common groups

The following estimates use the published base rates, assume one qualifying adult pair, then apply 10% service charge and 9% GST. They are scenarios, not restaurant quotes:

Group	Assumed base subtotal	Estimated nett	Why confirmation is needed
Two adults	S$128	About S$153.47	Confirm promotional inventory and pair eligibility
Two adults + one child	S$192	About S$230.21	Confirm the child-age definition
Two adults + two children	S$256	About S$306.94	Confirm both child charges and seating

A three-adult or four-adult estimate would require an assumption about how Racines applies the promotion to additional pairs, so LBRD has not stated one as fact. Ask the restaurant to write the base subtotal before you pay the deposit.

Time and access considerations

The service lasts two and a half hours. A buffet only offers value if the group can arrive near the start; late arrival does not necessarily extend the end time. Confirm the last food replenishment, parking or public-transport route, and whether mobility assistance or accessible seating is needed. Racines is on Level 5 of Sofitel Singapore City Centre, but guests should ask the hotel about the most suitable lift and drop-off route rather than infer accessibility from the floor number.

LBRD value verdict

For two adults who want a hotel buffet on the stated date, the effective estimated price of about S$76.74 each is the strongest part of the offer. Value is weaker for a solo diner, an odd-numbered adult group or anyone whose schedule makes a non-refundable deposit risky. Families should calculate child charges separately rather than dividing the adult pair total across the whole table.

Reporting note

Mei Lin Tan desk-reported this guide from the official offer and tax source on 15 July 2026; LBRD did not taste the menu. The estimated nett calculation is original reader service, not a restaurant quote. Verify the final total, age definitions, deposit treatment, availability and dietary requirements with Racines. Browse more restaurant guides in LBRDâ??s Food & Drinks section.

Bottom line: two adults appear to pay one S$128++ base price on 8 August, giving an estimated S$153.47 nett total. Secure written confirmation before treating the table or total as final.
