Resorts World Sentosa National Day: Mr Merlion's Hawker Fest

The star of the show is Mr Merlion's Hawker Fest at RWS WEAVE. It turns familiar local dishes into adorable collectible plushies, and entry is completely free. You will find it opposite Old Seng Choon and Birkenstock, open daily from 10am to 10pm. It runs from 30 July right through to 23 August 2026.

Five themed hawker stalls take the spotlight at the pop-up. It is a nostalgic, Instagram-worthy tribute to Singapore's hawker heritage. Bring the kids and the camera.

What You Can Grab (And For How Much)

This is where the value really shines. Admission costs nothing, so you only pay for what you love. The collectible plushies are the big draw for many families.

- Free admission to the I LOVE SG pop-up
- Collectible plushies themed after kopi, kaya toast, chilli crab and traditional kueh, from $23
- Local hawker bites across five themed stalls

Do note that the earlier live cooking demonstrations and Mr Merlion mascot meet-and-greets took place on 1 and 2 August. The good news is the pop-up itself stays open until 23 August. So there is still plenty of time to swing by.

Tips Before You Go

Weekends near National Day get busy, so plan your timing wisely. Head down on a weekday afternoon for a more relaxed browse. Grab the plushies you want early, as popular designs can sell out.

Pair it with a stroll around Sentosa to make a full day of it. For a free, feel-good SG61 outing, this Resorts World Sentosa National Day pop-up is hard to beat. Go grab your kaya toast plushie before they are all snapped up, lah.
