Sagye Lite, the casual sister of Orchard Korean pot rice restaurant Sagye, holds its grand opening at VivoCity on Wednesday 25 November with 1-for-1 sotbap for six days, to 30 November. The outlet is already in soft opening, so the doors are open now; the deal is what starts on Wednesday.

Sotbap is Korean rice cooked and served in its own pot, with the topping laid over the rice. At Sagye on Wheelock Place it is the centre of the menu, alongside stews and dishes to share. Sagye Lite keeps the pots and brings the prices down for everyday dining.

How the 1-for-1 works

Buy any eligible sotbap and a second eligible pot of equal or lower value is free. It is dine-in only and walk-in only, with no advance reservations for the promotion. A redemption is secured only when the order is placed in the restaurant, first come, first served.

- Lunch: 11am to 3pm, 150 redemptions
- Dinner: 5pm to 10pm, 150 redemptions
- Excluded: Signature Beef Short Rib and the F1 Japanese Wagyu Striploin sotbap
- Dates: 25 to 30 November 2026, while redemptions last

Because the free pot has to cost the same or less, two people ordering pots at the same price get the full value. Pair a cheaper pot with a dearer one and the free half of the deal is the cheaper one.

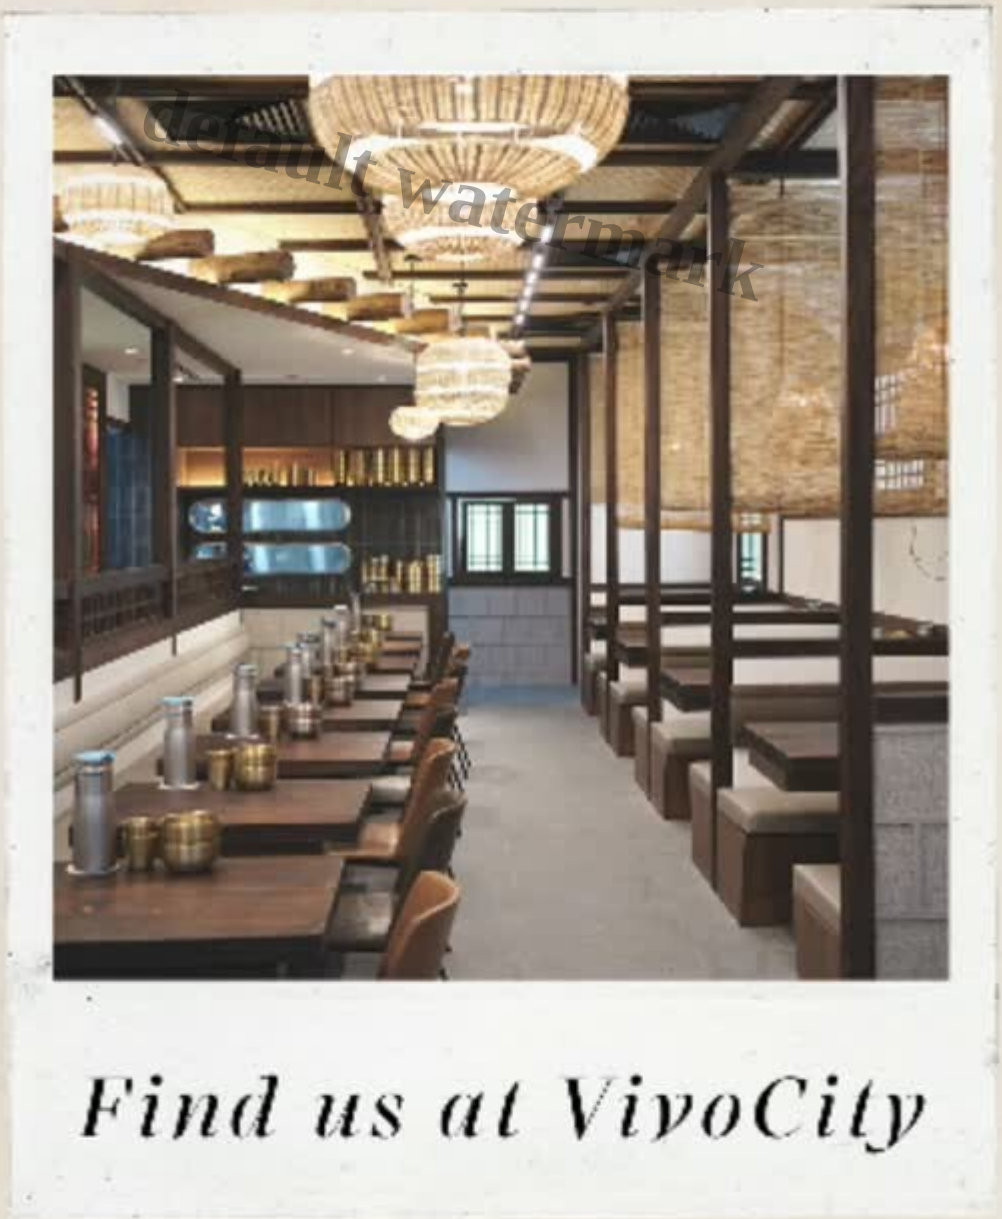

What the pots cost

Two pot prices have been shared ahead of the opening:

- Grilled Chicken Pot Rice: S$12.90
- Grilled Pork Belly Pot Rice: S$13.90

Under the 1-for-1, a grilled chicken pot paired with a grilled pork belly pot comes to S$13.90 for two. Rose yupdduk, rice cakes in a creamy rose sauce, is on the VivoCity menu too.

Sagye at Wheelock Place

Sagye at Wheelock Place, 501 Orchard Road #02-19, serves beef short rib, scallop and dongpo rou sotbap, alongside Japanese Wagyu ribeye and army stew. It also takes walk-ins only and opens for lunch from 11am to 3pm and dinner from 5pm to 10pm daily. If the VivoCity queue is long on the first weekend, Orchard is another way to get sotbap from the same brand, at full menu prices and with no promotion. Sagye Lite also runs an outlet at Westgate.
