What the ticket covers

Each Standard Ticket covers free-flow sake for the chosen three-hour window and a commemorative cup element tied to the September edition. The line-up lists more than 100 sakes, with izakaya plates and, for the first time, non-Japanese food pairings on the floor.

Stock and location

Online inventory on the Mirai page was still showing seats across all four sessions on Tuesday. Telok Ayer MRT (DT18) is the nearest station for Stanley Street in the Central Business District.

Tickets are sold per session on miraisakehall.sg.
