The Galaxy S26 Ultra S$400 off deal is the biggest headline on Samsung Singaporeâ??s holiday offers page, and it runs to 8 December 2026 at 11.59pm. That is 12 days from today, so there is time to compare before you commit. Samsung also has up to S$300 off the Galaxy Z Fold8 and 15% off the Galaxy Watch Ultra2 if you buy it with a phone.

Galaxy S26 Ultra S$400 off: what you actually get

The S$400 discount comes with a â??Livestream Specialâ?•, which Samsung lists beside it without spelling out the extras on the offers page. Check the buy page at checkout to see what is included for your storage size. The promotion period is 7 November to 8 December 2026, while stocks last.

The catch is that this offer cannot be stacked with other promotions. Samsungâ??s own notes say so for the S26 Ultra and the Fold8 alike. If you also want the 5% first-purchase discount (more on that below), confirm at checkout which one applies.

Z Fold8 and Watch Ultra2 deals to 8 December

The Galaxy Z Fold8 carries up to S$300 off plus a 5x Rewards Boost, valid 7 November to 8 December 2026. The terms describe e-vouchers of S$288, S$138 and S$48 depending on model and storage, so the headline S$300 is the ceiling, not a guarantee. E-vouchers cannot be exchanged for cash and the offer is not stackable.

On the wearables side, the Galaxy Watch Ultra2 gets 15% off when you buy any Galaxy smartphone or Tab in the same transaction. The same terms cover the Watch9. Two separate orders will not qualify, so put both in one basket.

Trade-in, instalments and the 5% first-purchase code

Samsung lists several ways to bring the price down further. Here is what the Samsung Singapore site states:

- Trade-in on the S26 Ultra page: instant savings from S$10 to S$1,141, depending on the model and condition of your old phone. Any value above the price is not refunded.
- Trade-in on the Z Fold8 page: S$10 to S$1,177 off.
- First purchase on the Samsung Online Store: 5% off with no minimum spend, valid until 31 December 2026, applied automatically if you qualify.
- 0% instalments on purchases above S$500 with DBS, UOB, OCBC, Standard Chartered or Trust cards, with tenures set by the issuer.
- SmartPlan: 0% interest for up to 60 months, from S$0.50 a day, with free delivery and collection.

Colour choice matters if you like something different. Pink Gold on the S26 Ultra and Pistachio on the Z Fold8 are sold only on Samsung.com. The S26 Ultra also comes in Cobalt Violet, Sky Blue, Black and White.
