

Sanrio Moonlit Garden at VivoCity Sky Park lights up through Sunday

Description

VivoCity keeps Sanrio Characters Moonlit Garden on the Level 3 Sky Park through Sunday, 27 September 2026, so Saturday and Sunday are the final two nights for the Mid-Autumn light walk.

The outdoor walk-through is free. Installations run with the mall day; lights take over in the evening. The carnival runs from about 5pm to 10pm, with games and the Mini Express Train subject to weather.

Six zones still up this weekend

The Sky Park splits into six named worlds: Moonlit Garden Gateway; Kuromi Carnival Kingdom; Cinnamoroll Secret Garden Grove; Hello Kitty Starlit Lantern Walk; Hangyodon Moonlit Water Garden; and Pompompurin Mooncake Tea Party, built around a roughly seven-metre inflatable on a giant mooncake.

At Cinnamoroll's grove, guests who solve the lantern riddles can redeem an exclusive sticker set. The first 50 solvers each hour between 5pm and 9pm get the set, while stocks last.

Carnival prices if you want more than photos

Kuromi Carnival Kingdom is the paid pocket. Carnival games cost S$10 each and the Mini Express Train S$10 a ride, with a four-sticker set. The photobooth is S$8 a session, and capsule machines cost S$8 to S$14. The free path through the lanterns and inflatables does not require those tickets.

Separately, a VC20 mooncake plush packing race runs at North-West Boulevard on Level 1 on Saturday 26 and Sunday 27 September, 4pm to 8pm, with a S$50 same-day spend for the first 250 members daily while stocks last.

VivoCity is at 1 HarbourFront Walk, open 10am to 10pm. HarbourFront MRT is the direct stop for the last two Moonlit Garden nights.
