

Sentosa SG61 Deals: $2 Cable Car Rides, a 1-for-1 SkyPass and $61 National Day Feasts

Description

If you have been waiting for a sign to plan a cheap day out this National Day, these Sentosa SG61 deals are it. The star of the show is a locals-only cable car offer that drops the round-trip price to just $2 per person on weekdays. Add a 1-for-1 SkyPass and a spread of $61-themed feasts, and you have a proper island outing that will not shag your wallet. Bookmark this one, because these offers run for a limited window and the good ones always fill up fast.

Sentosa SG61 deals: cable car rides from just $2

The headline lobang is the Singapore Cable Car offer for locals, and it is the cheapest way to get that skyline view. Round trips on the Sentosa Line are going for $2 per person on weekdays, which is almost too good to be true. On weekends and public holidays, the rate is $4 for adults and $3 for children, which is still a steal.

- $2 per person for Sentosa Line round trips on weekdays (locals only)
- $4 adult and $3 child on weekends and public holidays
- Valid from 1 June to 31 December 2026, so you have runway to plan
- Bring your identification, as this is a Singapore-resident promotion

Want both cable car lines in one go? There is also a 1-for-1 Singapore Cable Car SkyPass that gets you two tickets for $35, down from a usual price of $70. That covers both the Mount Faber Line and the Sentosa Line, so you can ride high over the harbour and the island in a single trip.

SG61 feasts built around the number 61

Sentosa's dining scene has leaned right into the SG61 theme, and the number 61 is popping up everywhere. Over at Bedrock Origin, a 61-Day Aged Wagyu Striploin marks the occasion at $161++ for a hefty 600g cut. The same address runs The Harvest Table bottomless brunch at $78++ per person, where one adult dines free for every six paying guests on Sundays and public holidays.

- Bedrock Origin: 61-Day Aged Wagyu Striploin, $161++ for 600g
- The Harvest Table: bottomless brunch at $78++, with one free for every six
- Islandwide SG61 theme: look out for $18.61 bites, $61 sets and 61%-off treats

How to stack your Sentosa SG61 deals

The smart move is to ride in on the $2 weekday cable car, then build your day around a themed meal. Families can lepak on the beaches, which are free to enter, before heading up for the evening light displays. If you are making a bigger occasion of it, a Resorts World Sentosa staycation turns the day trip into a proper getaway.

As always, promotions can change and some require online booking or a minimum spend, so verify the details on the official Sentosa and Resorts World Sentosa channels before you go. Prices quoted here are accurate at the time of writing. Grab them while they last, because National Day crowds move quickly.

The quick rundown

- Cable car: $2 weekday round trips for locals, until 31 December 2026
- SkyPass: 1-for-1 at $35 for two (u.p. $70), both lines covered
- Dining: $61-themed feasts across the island, from wagyu to brunch
- Remember: bring ID for local rates and check official sites before going
