

Shangri-La Singapore Marks SG61 with National Day Stay, Dining and Sentosa Deals

Description

Singapore turns 61 this August, and Shangri-La Group is marking the occasion with a set of SG61-themed offers spanning hotel stays, restaurant dining and a day out on Sentosa. All three are available for bookings and purchases made by 31 August 2026.

The pricing gimmick is a neat one: two of the three offers hand you SGD80 of value for SGD61, a nod to the nation's birthday.

Free buffet breakfast and local treats on stays

Guests booking a stay at Shangri-La and JEN hotels in Singapore receive complimentary buffet breakfast plus local treats. For families, breakfast for the whole room is usually where a staycation budget quietly disappears, so bundling it in is the more useful kind of perk.

The group's Singapore portfolio spans Shangri-La Singapore in the Orange Grove enclave, Shangri-La Rasa Sentosa on the island itself, and the JEN properties at Tanglin and Orchardgateway, so there is a spread of options depending on whether you want a garden-wing city stay or something closer to the beach.

SGD80 of dining value for SGD61

The dining offer gives SGD80 of value at Shangri-La and JEN restaurants in Singapore for SGD61, a roughly 24 per cent saving. That covers a fairly broad set of outlets across the group's hotels, including buffet venues such as J65 at JEN Singapore Tanglin.

The third offer extends the same maths to The Palawan @ Sentosa, where SGD61 buys SGD80 of value across the destination's attraction and dining outlets. The Palawan's line-up includes water play at Splash Tribe, the HydroDash floating aqua park, UltraGolf and the +Twelve dining cluster, making it an easy option for a family day out over the long weekend.
