Brazil beat Singapore 7-0 at the National Stadium on Tuesday night, 17 November 2026, with Vinicius Junior scoring a hat-trick inside the first 20 minutes. It was the first meeting between the two nations, Singaporeâ??s last game of the Mizuho Blue Challenge, The Kallang Football Series Singapore, and Brazilâ??s biggest win since they beat China 8-0 in September 2012.

Brazil were without head coach Carlo Ancelotti and forward Raphinha, both suspended after being sent off in the aftermath of Tatsuhiro Sakamotoâ??s winner when Japan beat them 3-2 at the same stadium on Saturday 14 November, as our match-day preview set out. It made no difference. The five-time world champions were 4-0 up at half-time and closed their 2026 schedule with a win.

Before kick-off, both teams stood for a minuteâ??s silence for Dino Sani, the 1958 World Cup winner who died on Sunday aged 94, and Brazil played with black armbands.

Three for Vinicius in 12 minutes

Estevao hit the post, and from the next attack Bruno Guimaraes slipped Vinicius in to open the scoring after eight minutes, Brazilâ??s first goal against Singapore in any match. On 14 minutes Vinicius broke at speed, played Endrick in and took the return to finish into an empty net. On 20 minutes he turned in Estevaoâ??s pass for his hat-trick.

Endrick made it four on the half-hour. Estevao laid the ball back to him on the right, and the striker turned away from his marker, cut inside and drove a low shot into the net. The first half carried one added minute and finished 4-0.

Estevao had a goal ruled out in the first half, but he got one that stood five minutes after the restart. Brazil made four changes on the hour, with Allan replacing Vinicius, and the debutant was soon involved. Rayan, who had also had a goal disallowed and hit the crossbar, scored the sixth on 64 minutes, running onto Allanâ??s diagonal pass, dribbling round the goalkeeper and rolling the ball into an empty net.

The seventh came on 73 minutes from Allan himself. Alisson Santana broke through the middle on a counter and found him on the right of the box, and Allan shot across goal to score on his first appearance for Brazil.

How the teams lined up

Head coach Gavin Lee started Izwan Mahbud, Jacob Mahler, Safuwan Baharudin, captain Hariss Harun, Ryhan Stewart, Shah Shahiran, Kyoga Nakamura, Harhys Stewart, Farhan Zulkifli, Ilhan Fandi and Song Uiyoung.

Brazil started Lucas Perri, Vanderson, Gabriel Magalhaes, Jonathan Jesus, Douglas Santos, Bruno Guimaraes, Joao Gomes, Estevao, Endrick, Rayan and Vinicius. What the series leaves Singapore with

The Lions finish The Kallang Football Series with two defeats from two, one goal scored and 11 conceded. They lost 4-1 to Paraguay on Friday 13 November, when Song Uiyoungâ??s diving header from Kyoga Nakamuraâ??s cross on 30 minutes cancelled out Gustavo Caballeroâ??s early opener before Paraguay pulled away.

On the eve of the match, Lee framed it as preparation rather than a test of results. â??Every game is another step in our journey towards the Asian Cup, and this is another opportunity for us to challenge ourselves against a very strong opponent,â?• he said.

After Paraguay, Leeâ??s message was that his side had to hold their tempo for 90 minutes against stronger opposition. Against Brazil, the damage was done early, with four goals in 22 minutes from the eighth-minute opener.
