

[Media Release] Singapore Flyer introduces Picnic in the Sky and free rides for children during the March School Holidays

Description

default watermark

A one-of-a-kind picnic among the clouds with an everchanging view

Gear up for a sky-high adventure during the March School Holidays as Singapore Flyer introduces a one-of-a-kind Picnic in the Sky experience and free rides for children.
Families are invited to soar into the sky while relishing assorted nibbles and childhood games, against a breathtaking backdrop of the city below.

Picnic in the Sky

Singapore Flyerâ??s latest offering promises an unforgettable picnic among the clouds with an everchanging view of the Singapore skyline. Families can enjoy quality time together over a picnic basket teeming with delectable bites such as assorted croissants, pizzas, chicken karaage, assorted tropical cut fruits, and iconic childhood snacks like iced gem biscuits. Besides indulging in the scrumptious treats, guests can relive the thrill of nostalgic games such as five stones, pick-up sticks, and snakes and ladders while soaking in the mesmerising views from 165 meters high.

Relive the thrill of nostalgic games such as five stones, pick-up sticks, and snakes and ladders (cred Singapore Flyer æ?°å? å•¡æ?©å¤©è§?æ?¯è½®ï¼?

The 60-minute Picnic in the Sky experience is exclusively available at 3 pm on 15 and 16 March 2024 and is tailored for guests aged three and above. Guests are welcome to take home the entire basket of goodies, extending the fun long after their adventure at Singapore Flyer. After the picnic, delve into Singaporeâ??s vibrant history with complimentary admission to the immersive Time Capsule experience.

Priced at $180 net for two persons, this unique experience offers a perfect opportunity for both the young and old to unwind and create cherished memories with loved ones during the school holidays. Limited slots are available, and tickets can be purchased through Singapore Flyerâ??s website and the WeChat Mini Programme.

Singapore Residentsâ?? Holiday Family Bundle: Free Rides for Children

Journey through the Singapore story at the immersive Time Capsule (credit of Singapore Flyer æ?°å¡æ?©å¤©?æ?¯è½®ï¼?

Families seeking a more classic experience can revel in the Singapore Residentsâ?? Holiday Family Bundle for Singapore Flyer + Time Capsule tickets. Exclusive to Singapore Citizens and Permanent Residents, up to two children can enjoy complimentary admission with every two paying adults. This means that tickets for two adults and two children would only cost $80, instead of the regular price of $130. This promotion is valid from 8 to 17 March 2024, and tickets can be purchased through Singapore Flyerâ??s website, ticketing counter, and kiosk, as well as the WeChat Mini Programme.

For more information, please visit singaporeflyer.com.

For the latest deals and content, join our Telegram channel here today!

You May Also Like

- Wicked Wallop #10 Kustom Kulture Weekend 2025 â?? Better than last year?
- What is the Labubu craze?
- Artbox Camp 2026: I Went So Youâ??d Know What to Expect (and What to Eat)

Date Created
04/03/2024
Author
teamlbrd

default watermark