- Show Gardens – All-Stars Edition – eight previous Best-of-Show winners return for one final showdown for the Pinnacle Award.
- Fantasy Gardens – large-scale concept gardens that lean into the carnival theme.

- Floral Windows To The World (FWWC) – international floral artistry on display.
- Orchid Extravaganza – the SGF orchid showcase that pulls collectors and casual fans alike.
- Marketplace – gardening bazaar with plants, tools and lifestyle goods.
- Family activities – kid-friendly workshops, mascot meet-and-greets and photo trails.

Why the 10th edition is worth the trip

SGF rotates designers every edition. Bringing back eight previous Best-of-Show winners for an All-Stars round is a one-off – past competitors do not normally return. If you have been waiting for the Singapore Garden Festival to feel like a “greatest hits” album, this is the year.

The carnival theme also gives the team license to go bigger and brighter – expect colour-saturated installations, immersive sensory zones, and floral structures that are very Instagram-friendly.

Plan your visit

- MRT: Bayfront (CE1/DT16) – direct access via the underpass to Gardens by the Bay.
- Best time: Weekday mornings tend to be the calmest; weekends pull thick crowds.
- Tickets: Watch the SGF site for the ticket release and any early-bird windows.
- What to bring: Reusable water bottle, hand fan, comfy walking shoes – the indoor domes are cool but outdoor gardens get warm.
- Photo tip: Floral Fantasy and the Cloud Forest mist hours give you the best lighting.

Bookmark 4-12 July 2026 – the 10th-edition all-stars showcase will be one of the year’s biggest Gardens by the Bay weekends.
