Singapore GP has given race fans a fresh 2026 planning update: the Formula 1 Singapore Airlines Singapore Grand Prix returns from 9 to 11 October 2026 with the debut of F1 Sprint and an expanded Zone 1 entertainment experience.

The 28 May update names Mark Ronson, DJ Snake, Major Lazer Soundsystem, Goo Goo Dolls, Rev Run and other acts in the Zone 1 line-up, while also introducing a new Barge Stage entertainment precinct. Main Padang Stage headliners and Zone 4 acts are still to be announced.

What Zone 1 Gets

Zone 1 is the part of the Circuit Park closest to the F1 Paddock and Pit Building. Singapore GP says Zone 1 ticketholders can also access performances throughout the Circuit Park, including the Padang Stage in Zone 4, which makes the entertainment mix important when choosing ticket categories.

The new Barge Stage is described as a 2,891sqm waterfront entertainment precinct with a specially designed amphitheatre and terraced seating. The DJ line-up listed for the Barge Stage includes Mark Ronson, DJ Snake, Major Lazer Soundsystem, Rev Run, ZHU, TOKiMONSTA and Flight Facilities in DJ Set format.
