Skechers warehouse sale November 2026: dates, hours and venue

Here are the details as announced on Skechers Singaporeâ??s official channels:

- Dates: Wednesday 4 November to Sunday 8 November 2026
- Hours: 10am to 8pm from 4 to 7 November; 10am to 7pm on 8 November
- Venue: Skechers Singapore, 45 Ubi Road 1, Level 1, Singapore 408696
- Discounts: up to 90% off footwear, apparel and accessories
- Starting prices: footwear from S$25, apparel and accessories from S$15

The building is in the Ubi industrial estate, a short walk from MacPherson MRT on the Circle and Downtown lines. Note the shorter hours on Sunday, since the doors close an hour earlier at 7pm.

What the prices look like

Skechers hasnâ??t put out a full price list, and stock at warehouse sales is first come, first served. What the brand has confirmed is the floor: S$25 for shoes and S$15 for clothes, bags and accessories. The key visual shows a mix of walking shoes, running shoes, kidsâ?? light-up sneakers, tees, polos, socks and bags, so expect the usual spread across menâ??s, womenâ??s and childrenâ??s ranges.

Not everything will be at the full 90% off, so the deeper cuts are where the real lobang is. If you have a specific model in mind, look up its regular price on the Skechers online store before you go. That way you know a good deal when you see one, and you wonâ??t be swayed by a big red tag alone.

Extra perks: SIMBA vouchers and Gold Member early access

Skechers is adding a telco tie-up on top of the markdowns. Make any purchase at the warehouse sale and you get S$5 in SIMBA credits plus a S$20 SIMBA broadband voucher. The catch: it only applies to new SIMBA users, and terms apply.

Skechers Gold Members already had first dibs. A members-only early access session ran on Tuesday 3 November from 3pm to 8pm, with an additional 10% off for spends of S$300 and above (excluding Lucky Size items). That window has closed, so the extra 10% is not part of the public sale.

Tips before you head down

- Go early in the week if you can. Popular sizes tend to go first, and weekends at warehouse sales are usually busier.
- Know your size in Skechers. Fit varies between lines, and warehouse sales rarely have the space or staff for leisurely try-ons.
- Bring your own shopping bag, because you will probably leave with more than you planned.
- Skechers hasnâ??t listed payment methods in its posts, so bring a card and a bit of cash just in case.
- Check exchange and refund rules at the counter before paying, since sale items often come with stricter terms than regular retail.

If youâ??re in a sportswear-shopping mood, we also covered the Link Outlet warehouse sale at Toa Payoh earlier this year. With 11.11 next week, keep an eye on the FairPrice 11.11 PreSale too, or look back at how the Nike Singapore extra 30% off promo stacked up.
