

Skosh Hand Roll & Matcha Bar now open at Scotts Square #B1-K1

Description

Skosh has opened a second Singapore outlet at Scotts Square, this one built around hand rolls and matcha rather than the onigiri-and-sandos brief at Bencoolen.

Skosh Hand Roll & Matcha Bar sits at #B1-K1, 6 Scotts Road, in the open basement opposite FairPrice Finest. It is open daily 10am-9pm. The original café remains at 80 Bencoolen Street #01-15 inside NAFA.

Hand rolls from S$4.50

Twelve hand rolls are on the menu, served with a plastic wrapper so the nori stays crisp. À la carte rolls run about S$4.50 to S$10.80. Sets are listed at S$12.80 for three and S$18.80 for five. The Skosh Tasting Menu is S$32.80 for five premium rolls, with toppings such as snow crab, torched octopus, Hokkaido N34 beef, aka ebi and negitoro.

Lower-priced picks include the samsui scallion chicken roll at S$4.50. Engawa and Hokkaido scallop sit at S$6.50. The Hokkaido N34 beef roll is S$10.80. Sides include sesame lotus salad at S$5 and white miso soup at S$3. Matcha drinks take up more than 15 lines on the drinks board.

How to find it

Scotts Square is above Orchard MRT. The kiosk has about 20 seats around the counter, with a couple of side tables. Contact for Scotts Square is +65 8208 3510. Details and the full menu live on skosh.sg.
