Geylang go top of the SPL after Matchweek 3 as Sailors hit Young Lions for six

Description

default watermark

Geylang International sit alone at the top of the 2026/27 Singapore Premier League after Matchweek 3, while Lion City Sailors scored six in Mark Jacksonâ??s first league match in charge. The round, wrapped by the Singapore Premier League on 14 October 2026, also delivered wins for Tampines Rovers and Balestier Khalsa.

Photo: Singapore Premier League

Geylang go top

Geylang beat FC Jurong 3-1 at Our Tampines Hub on 10 October. Akram Azman put Jurong ahead in the fourth minute from Christopher van Huizenâ??s corner, his first goal for the club. Geylang levelled five minutes later when a Yang Hyeonju corner rebounded in off Hassan Sunny for an own goal. Sahil Suhaimi made it 2-1 in the 68th minute and Dejan Racic sealed it in the 78th.

Geylang have won all three of their matches and lead on nine points, three clear of Jurong and Tampines. Racic now has 26 SPL goals in 31 appearances. Jurongâ??s winning run in the league ended at eight games.

Sailors thrash Young Lions

At Jalan Besar Stadium on 11 October, Sailors recovered from Toi Kagamiâ??s tenth-minute opener to win 6-1. Bart Ramselaar, captaining for the first time, equalised four minutes later. Hugo Gomes headed in Giovanni Haagâ??s corner for his first Sailors goal, Bailey Wright scored after the break, Ilhan Fandi made it 4-1 against brother Iryan, and Matthias PhaÃ«ton finished twice.

default watermark

default watermark

Photo: Singapore Premier League

Jackson made eight changes from midweek ASEAN Club Championship duty. PhaÃ«ton scored two and assisted two. The Young Lions have conceded 11 goals in their last two matches.

Tampines and Balestier also win

Tampines beat Tanjong Pagar United 4-0 at Jurong East Stadium on 11 October, with second-half goals from Hide Higashikawa, Seiga Sumi, Yuma Kimura and Faris Ramli. Tampines sit second on six points with a game in hand.

Balestier Khalsa took their first win of the season, 2-1 away at Hougang United on 12 October. Marin Kuzminski and Jakov Katusa scored inside 11 minutes before Lucas Soares replied. Hougang finished with nine men after red cards for Huzaifah Aziz and Khairin Nadim.

Date Created
15/10/2026
Author
jadeyeo

default watermark