Where the table stands

Geylang go into the weekend top on 14 points from six games. Noor Aliâ??s side are unbeaten, with four wins and two draws, and have conceded just two goals.

Sailors and Tampines Rovers sit on 13 points each, both from five games, so each has a game in hand on the leaders. Sailors are ahead on goal difference, having scored 20 and conceded three. Tampines have scored 13 and also conceded three.

FC Jurong, Balestier Khalsa and Tanjong Pagar United are level on seven points from six games. Young Lions have three points and Hougang United one.

What Sunday could mean

The two Sunday games run at the same time, which makes the evening a straight shoot-out for top spot. A Sailors win would take Mark Jacksonâ??s side to 16 points and past Geylang. Tampines can also reach 16 if Nazri Nasirâ??s team win at Bishan.

A Geylang win at Jalan Besar would lift them to 17 and open a gap on the champions. A draw would leave Geylang on 15, still top unless Tampines beat Hougang.

Sailors have the leagueâ??s sharpest attack so far, with 20 goals in five matches, against the leagueâ??s meanest defence. Geylangâ??s two goals conceded in six games is the best record in the division.

The rest of the round

Fridayâ??s opener at Jurong East pairs two of the three clubs on seven points, so the winner pulls clear of the mid-table pack. On Saturday, Young Lions host Tanjong Pagar at Jalan Besar. Tanjong Pagar have conceded 16 in six league games, and Young Lions 21, so goals could come at both ends.

Hougang, bottom with one point, face a Tampines side still unbeaten in the league, with four wins and a draw from five games.

Getting there

Jurong East Stadium is within walking distance of Jurong East MRT. Jalan Besar Stadium sits between Lavender and Jalan Besar MRT stations, and Bishan Stadium is near Bishan MRT. Check each clubâ??s channels for ticketing before you head down.
