

Splashtopia 2026 At Sentosa: Everything To Know Before The 30 May Reopening

Description

Splashtopia 2026 Sentosa returns on 30 May 2026 and runs through 28 June 2026 â?? bang in the middle of the June school holidays. The Polynesian-Hawaiian theme is the headline twist this year, with tiki-inspired inflatables, slides, volcanoes and water trails across Palawan Green.

If you have not bought your tickets yet, the early bird 10% discount is still live until 29 May. Kiasu parents, you know what to do.

What Is New About Splashtopia 2026 Sentosa

Kiztopia has redressed the whole park around a tropical-Polynesian theme. Expect:

- Flower garland archways and volcano centrepieces across the floor
- New inflatable slides sized for both toddlers and older kids
- Water trails for the under-six set so you do not need to chaperone every step
- A photo zone parents will not be embarrassed to post

Pricing And Tickets

Tickets sit roughly between S$49 and S$59 per person for the full three-hour experience. The early bird 10% discount expires 29 May, after which prices return to standard rates.

Daily sessions are split into three-hour slots â?? book the slot that fits your nap schedule, not the cheapest one.

Best Time To Go

Weekday mornings are quietest. Saturdays and Sundays get full by 11am especially in week one and week four of the holiday window.

If you can swing a Wednesday morning slot â?? Sentosa shuttle in, splash session, lunch at Coastes, ferry back â?? you have done June right.

What To Pack

- Quick-dry change of clothes for everyone
- Reef-safe sunscreen (open-air park, even on cloudy days)

- A waterproof phone pouch
- Light snacks â?? F&B is available but priced to match the Sentosa norm

Pair It With

Stay on Sentosa for the night and pair Splashtopia with the vOilah! French animation screenings at Palawan Kidz City Roof Garden, free at 5.30pm. Or pair it with a HomeTeamNS Dip â??N Splash visit at Bedok Reservoir on 6 to 7 June for the broader water-play tour.

How To Book

Tickets are available at the official Kiztopia and Sentosa channels. Bring printed tickets or the QR code on your phone â?? the entry queue moves a lot quicker that way.
