

Starbucks Mid-Autumn gift box is S$69.90 for eight; singles are S$6.90

Description

Starbucks Singapore's Assorted Mooncake Gift Box is S$69.90 for eight baked pieces, with matching carrier bag, on the official Mid-Autumn menu at starbucks.com.sg.

Singles of the same flavours are listed at S$6.90 each. The assortment in the box is two Lotus Paste with Egg Yolk, two Osmanthus Oolong, plus one each of Oolong Yuzu, Pandan Osmanthus, Black Sesame Egg Yolk and Caramel Coffee Macadamia.

What you actually pay

S$69.90 for eight is S$8.74 a piece. Buying the same eight as singles at S$6.90 would be S$55.20. The gift box is therefore a packaging and gifting product, not a multi-buy discount on the mooncakes themselves.

If you only want one or two flavours, the single at S$6.90 is the cheaper route. If you need a ready gift with the carrier bag, the box is the SKU Starbucks is selling for that job. Lotus Paste with Egg Yolk and Black Sesame Egg Yolk are the yolk options; Osmanthus Oolong, Oolong Yuzu, Pandan Osmanthus and Caramel Coffee Macadamia fill out the non-yolk half of the box.

Where and until when

Starbucks lists Assorted Mooncakes (single and gift box) at all stores from 22 July 2026, plus Mobile Order & Pay and Starbucks Delivers on the app. Mid-Autumn Festival itself falls on 25 September 2026 this year, so the window is still live for gifting through the festival week.

Stock runs while available at each store. The arithmetic is simple: pay S$69.90 for the curated eight with the bag, or S$6.90 a piece when you only need one flavour. There is no published percentage-off line on this Mid-Autumn menu page; the price is the price.
