Merchandise and gifts

The Snowman's Amazing Day Christmas Collection follows a snowman making friends with woodland animals, with scenes of snowball fights, tree decorating and cafe moments in reds and greens with soft blues and pink accents. It goes on sale on 28 October in-store, on the Starbucks Online Store at 10am and on LazMall at 12pm, while stocks last.

From 4 November, the Party Delight Collection (festive reds and whites, inspired by the dessert course of Christmas dinner) and the Golden Lights Collection (ornament-inspired collectibles with geometric patterns) arrive, along with the nine-piece Holiday Gifting Collection. That collection includes two Singapore-exclusive accessories: a Bearista plush tucked into a pouch and a furry Bearista wristlet pouch. These are sold in-store, on the Online Store at 10am and on LazMall at 12pm, while stocks last.

Five Christmas designs of Starbucks Cards are also available from 28 October, while stocks last.
