Starbucks Winnie the Pooh collection: what is in it

Starbucks has teamed up with Disney for a limited-edition range marking 100 years of Winnie the Pooh. The collection draws on the Hundred Acre Wood, with drinkware and lifestyle pieces that nod to friendship, kindness and everyday connections.

Collectors can also look out for Starbucks Bearista keychains and phone straps dressed as Winnie the Pooh, Piglet, Eeyore and Tigger, plus a Winnie the Pooh-themed reusable bag that folds into a matching pouch.

When and where: the collection goes on sale from 20 October 2026 in stores, and on LazMall at 12pm, while stocks last.

Black Cat Frappuccino and Halloween collectibles

For Halloween, Starbucks is serving the Black Cat Frappuccino Blended Beverage. It combines raspberry blackcurrant with dark mocha, topped with whipped cream, dark mocha sauce and cat ear and tail-shaped chocolate pieces. It is available from 20 to 31 October at all stores and via Mobile Order & Pay, and can also be ordered through Starbucks Delivers, GrabFood and Foodpanda, while stocks last.

The Black Cat Starlit Party collection pays tribute to the Starbucks Black Cat, joined by owl and Bearista companions in Halloween outfits. Beyond drinkware, it includes a phone stand and a reusable cup bag with plush. Both Halloween collections are available in stores, on the Starbucks Online Store and on LazMall, while stocks last.
