

Connect by SWDA open at Lifelong Learning Institute, Paya Lebar

Description

Connect by SWDA is open at the Lifelong Learning Institute, 11 Eunos Road 8, a short walk from Paya Lebar MRT. Prime Minister Lawrence Wong opened the centre on 16 September 2026 during SkillsFuture Festival 2026, folding career advisory, skills guidance and employment support into one address.

The ground floor takes walk-ins for careers and skills resources, on-site Careers and Skills Advisors, and AI-supported course and funding suggestions. The second floor runs on pre-booked appointments for deeper career coaching, employer workforce and job-redesign sessions, and professional development for career practitioners.

Getting there

Lifelong Learning Institute sits at 11 Eunos Road 8, Singapore 408601. Paya Lebar MRT Exit B is the nearest station. Careers Connect at the same campus lists Monday to Friday, 9am to 5pm, Saturday by appointment only, and closed on Sundays and public holidays (tel: 6883 5885).

AI courses on the same launch day

SWDA also published more than 200 AI courses from about 30 supported providers on MySkillsFuture. Singapore citizens aged 18 and above who attend an eligible course ending on 16 September 2026 or later can redeem one complimentary six-month subscription to ChatGPT Plus, Google AI Pro, Manus AI, Microsoft 365 Personal or Singtel AI Pass. Look for the "Free AI sub" label. Redemption details arrive by email after attendance; submit within 60 days. One free subscription per person for the programme.

SkillsFuture Festival 2026 runs islandwide from 16 September to 28 October with more than 140 events. Connect by SWDA is the walk-in front door at Paya Lebar.
