

Tablescape's Christmas 2026 dinner starts at S$98++, with rum kunafa and osmanthus yam log cakes

Description

Tablescape Restaurant & Bar at Grand Park City Hall has unveiled its Christmas 2026 collection, a mix of a four-course dinner in its neoclassical dining room, two reimagined log cakes and Festive Celebration Sets for gatherings at home. The festive dinner runs from 2 December to 1 January, from 6.30pm to 9pm.

The Festive Four-Course Dinner

The dinner costs S$98++ per guest. Each diner picks two starters, one main course and one dessert from a contemporary European menu.

The starters are Burrata with heirloom tomatoes and shaved melon, a Foie Gras Duo of pan-seared foie gras and mousse with beetroot, cocoa and salted chocolate, and Boston Lobster with charred onion, garden leaves and Avruga caviar.

Mains include Sea Perch, cooked sous-vide and wrapped in savoy cabbage with charred leeks, mussels and a bonito-onion emulsion, and a Roasted Turkey Roulade with potato mousseline, smoked bacon and asparagus. There is also a Josper-grilled Wagyu Beef Tenderloin with shallot confit, pumpkin fondant and tenderstem broccoli, and a vegetarian Truffle Courgette Risotto.

Dessert is the Coffee & Coconut Cloud, a coffee-coconut mousse with crisp meringue and candy floss, finished tableside with a spray of gold dust.

Two log cakes and a cheese board

The takeaway range includes two log cakes, each 1kg and serving 8 to 10 people:

- Santa's Secret Rum & Kunafa Log, S$98, takes its cue from Dubai chocolate with crisp chocolate kunafa layered against moist chocolate sponge and a rum note
- Frosty's Osmanthus & Yam Log, S$88, pairs osmanthus pear confiture with vanilla sponge, white chocolate mousse and Japanese yam filling
