Tanglin Mall Christmas 2026 is going bigger than ever. The mallâ??s festive programme, Holiday Express: A Magical Journey, runs from 13 November 2026 to 3 January 2027 and adds a brand-new outdoor Christmas carnival with train rides and fairground games to the free nightly snowfall that families already know and love.

Tucked at the quieter end of Orchard Road, Tanglin Mall has long been a go-to for families who want the Christmas atmosphere without the crowds further down the street. Here is what is on and when.

Christmas Carnival at Tanglin Mall (13 November to 27 December)

The headline addition this year is an outdoor Christmas carnival. Little ones can ride Santaâ??s Express, bounce around the Little Elvesâ?? Castle inflatable play area, and try six traditional fairground games, including ring toss and duck fishing. Claw machines stocked with festive plush toys and prizes round things off.

Shoppers can redeem five carnival tokens with S$50 in same-day receipts, while stocks last. Supermarket receipts count double, which makes the weekly grocery run a little more festive.

Snow Splendours: free nightly snowfall (14 November to 3 January)

Tanglin Mallâ??s complimentary snowfall returns for 51 days. Sessions run nightly at 7.30pm, with an extra 8.30pm session on weekends and selected public holidays. In a city that never gets a white Christmas, it remains one of the simplest ways to make childrenâ??s eyes light up, and it costs nothing.

Tanglin Mall Christmas markets (13 November to 20 December)

Across six weekends, the mallâ??s Christmas markets bring together independent brands for gift hunting. Look out for fragrances by nowlaterstudio, coconut-based skincare from Coco Veda, custom poetry by Graceful Quills and bakes from Han Confectionary. Live music, caricature drawing and childrenâ??s activities will run on selected dates. For more festive shopping across the island, see our guide to Christmas markets in Singapore 2026.
